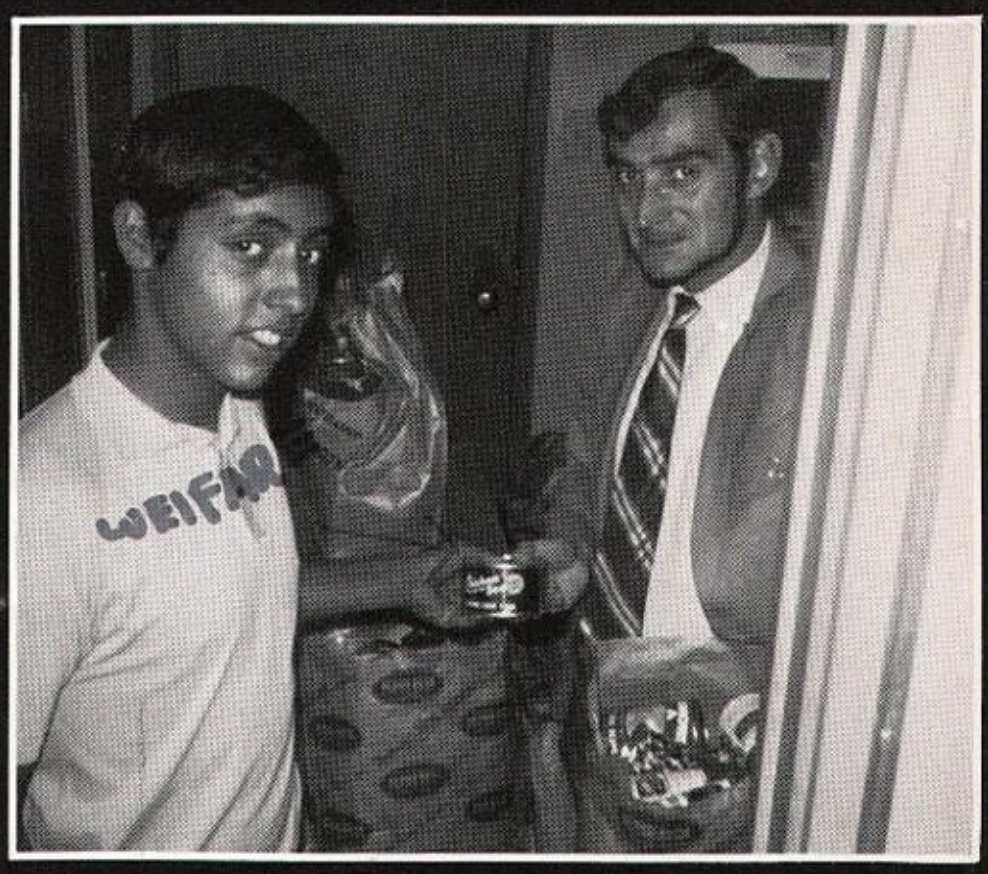
Glorious Sight This Soul Has Seen.



IN THE BEGINNING . . .

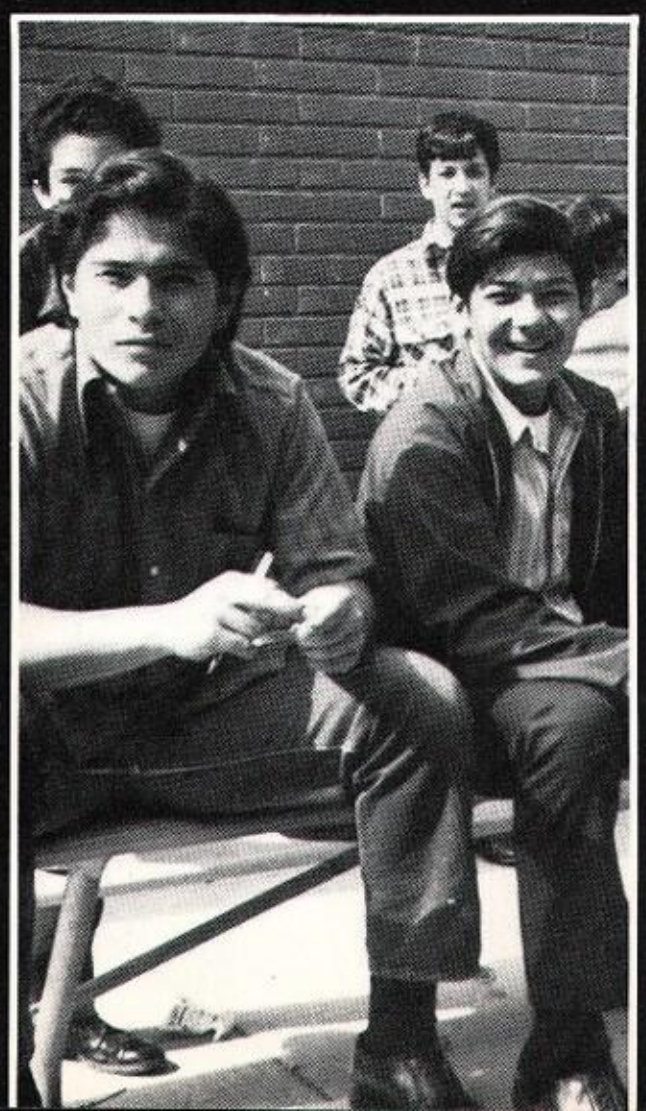
"Tennis anyone," asks the CHAMP, Mr. Peyton.

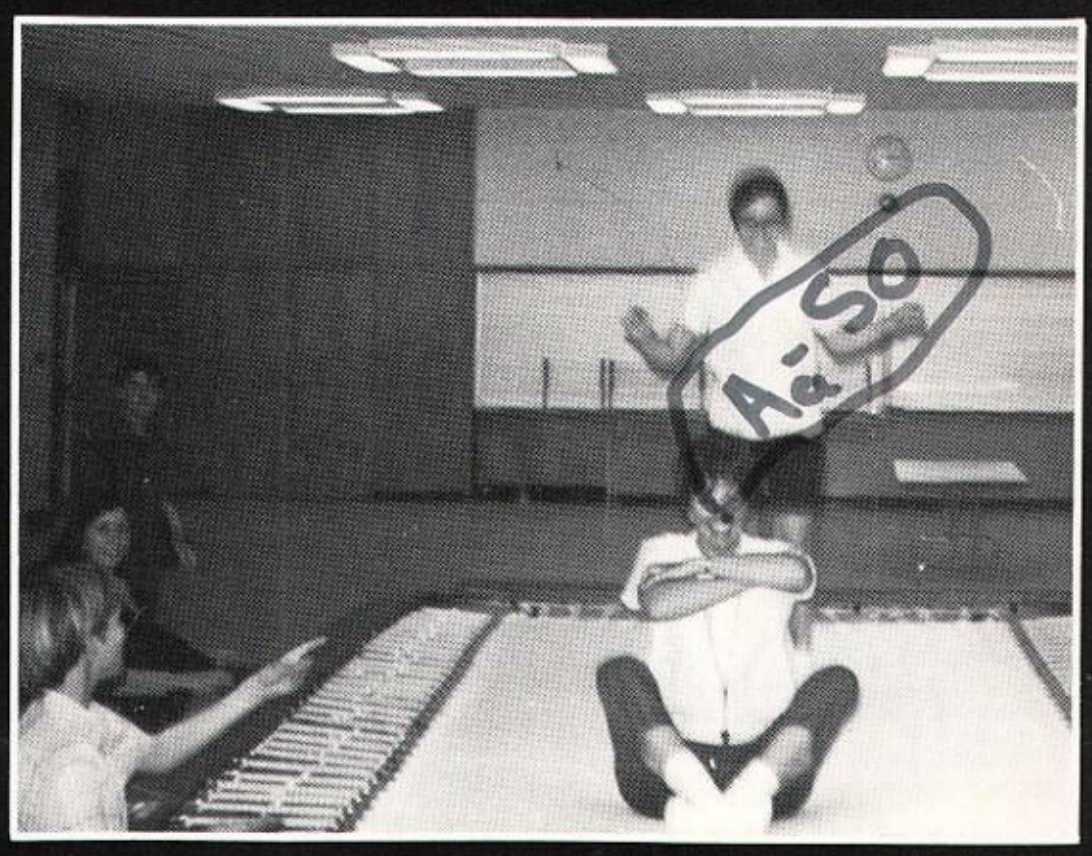
In the beginning is where it all started. In almost every picture you find smiles of students and teachers. Smiles that reflect upon Raney's school life. Smiles that express friendship and give a certain warmth throughout the school year. We at Raney feel our school has served its purpose in teaching and molding us into what we are and will be. We were ably led by Mr. Troxel, Mr. Van Matre, Mr. Best and the faculty. Our School Board and Supt. of Schools, Dr. Charles Terrell provide us with a curriculum and facilities for a top school. We appreciate our parents who made all this possible. Our spirit is good. Thanks to you.

Mrs. Wilson is in the library before and after school everyday to meet the needs of students.

Raney's Library is one of the best for any Jr. High School in Southern California.

Carlos Reynoso, Mike Garcia and friends, take a break during lunch.





Miss Geiger and Mrs. Hetherington "try out" Raney's new trampoline with which the money was raised by G. R. A. selling candy and the cheerleaders donating money that they had earned.

Rules
ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Mr. Troxel

Mr. Jim Troxel, Raney's new Principal, brought new and useful ideas to our school. It was great loss that Mr. Art Van Matre left us in February. To take his place as Vice-Principal, Mr. Best came from Norco Senior High where he had been a Social Studies teacher.

Our Principal and Vice-Principal are assisted by two outstanding Counselors and an Office staff that does so well in serving the students and school.

Mr. Troxel and Mr. Van Matre discuss school problems.

Mr. Stauffcher and Mrs. Rule, both counselors, help students in their every day needs.

Raney secretaries, Mrs. Emerton and Mrs. Guffy write the morning announcements, and do numerous things.

Joins The Crowd

These are our custodians.

Mrs. Naylor says good-bye to Mr. Van Matre at his farewell party.

Mrs. Wilson, librarian, Mrs. Nicholson, Nurse, and Mrs. Benjamin, secretary, assist students in many ways.

Mr. Granada is new to our school this year as a counselor.

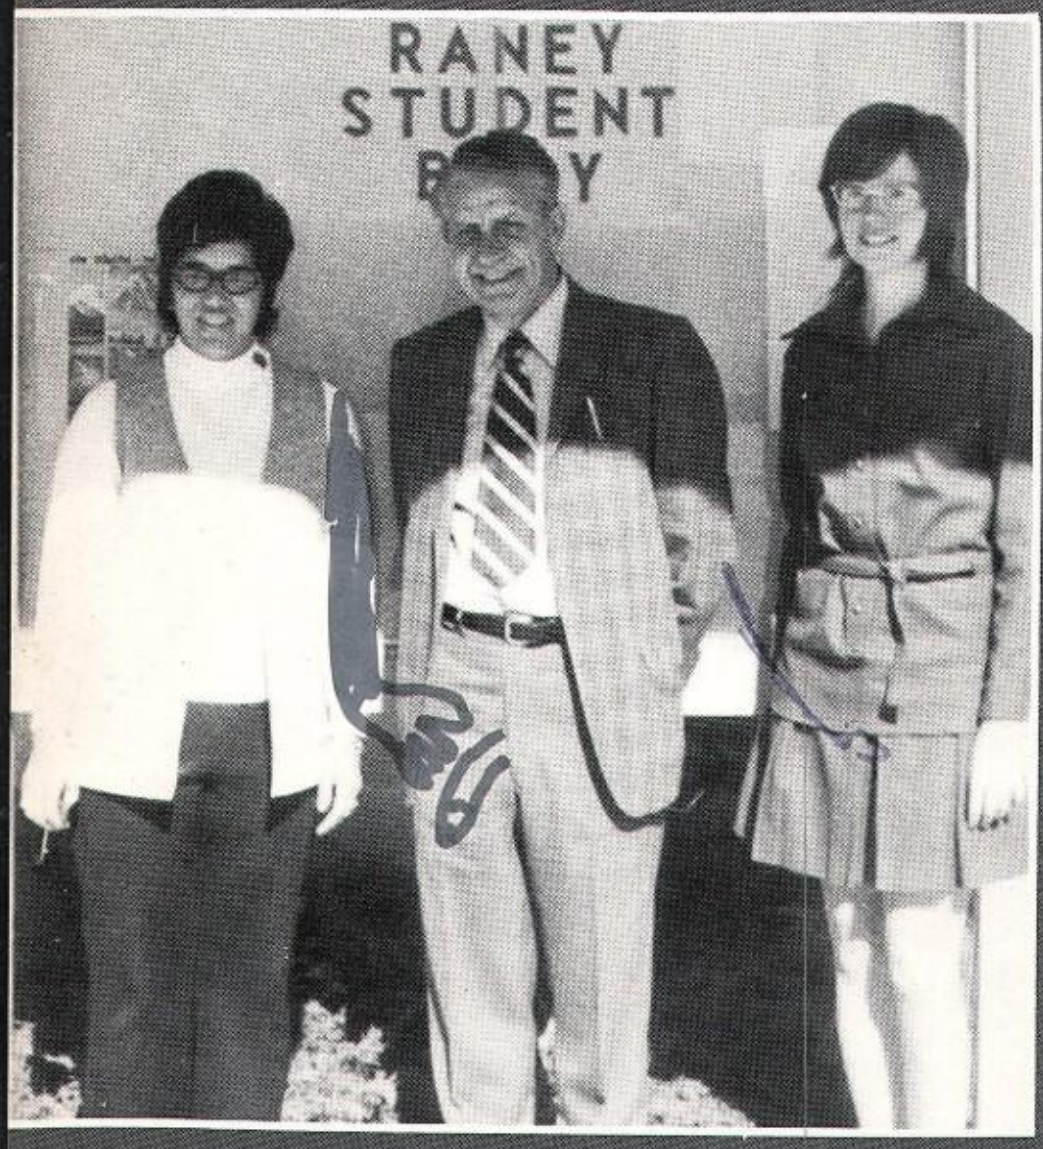
Raney Teachers Offer a Variety of

Our Language Dept. is one of the best features of our school. They all work hard to give the students a better understanding. Mr. Green heads the group with much enthusiasm. Ms. Baldwin, Mr. Godoy, Miss Oosten, and Ms. Naylor push the program with interest. Mr. Smith and Mr. Long head the Woodshop and Metal shop departments with many creative ideas.

Our science teachers are looking ahead with vision and as head of the dept. Mr. Peyton is ably assisted by Mr. Cooley, Mr. Curtin, and Mr. Neville.

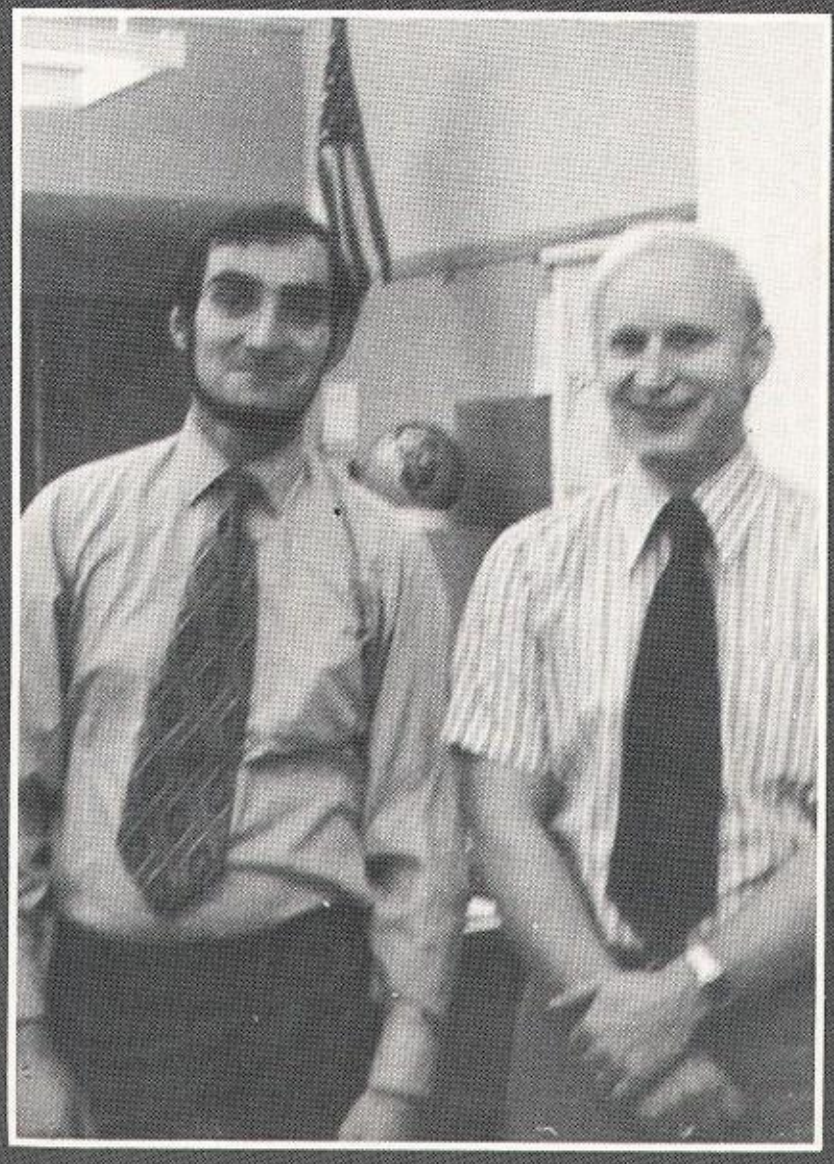
All the faculty are good friends and work together to make our school tops.

Mrs. Lightbody and Mrs. Randall enjoy their lunch in the homemaking room.



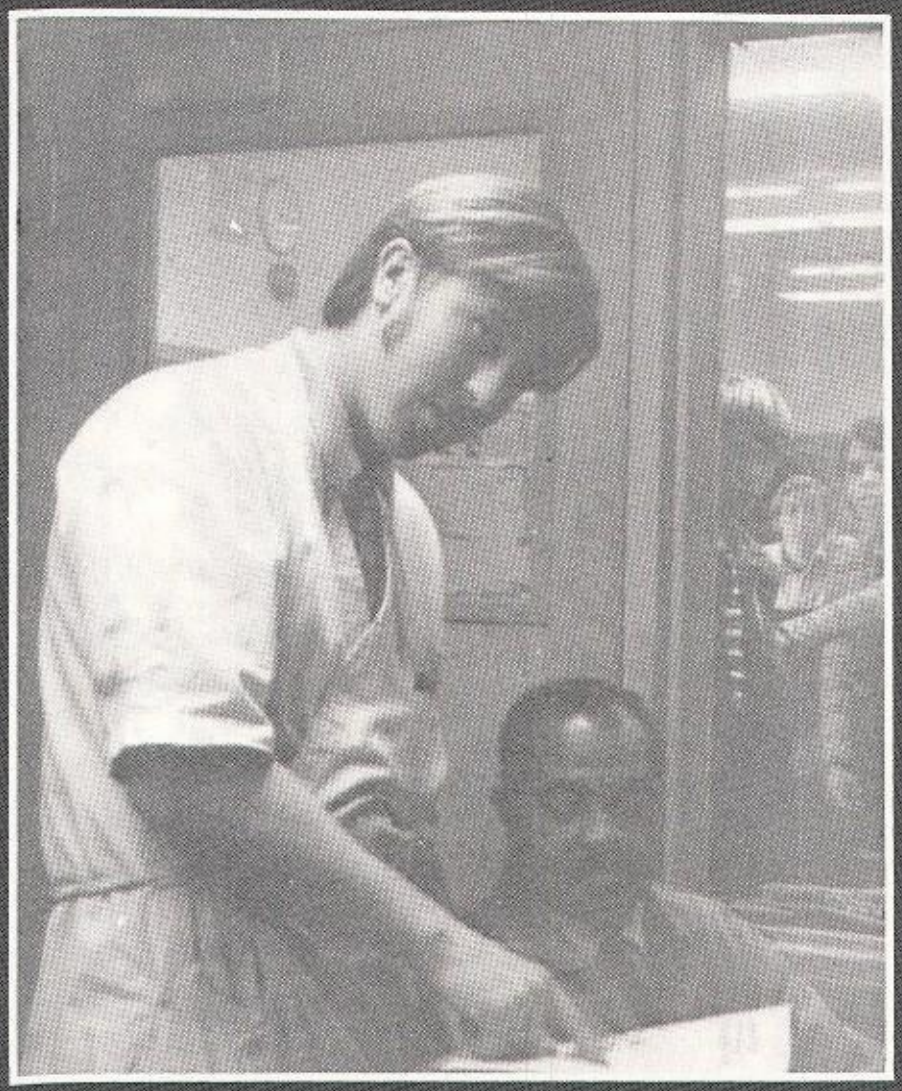
Mr. Howbert and Mrs. Naylor welcome Mrs. Koos to the English department.

Mr. Elkins and Mr. Nelson think history is no laughing matter.



Classes

Mr. Peyton, Mr. Cooley, and Mr. Curtain say "Raney science is for the birds."



Mr. Smith shows Mr. Long the measurements for a pencil holder.

Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. Godoy, and Mr. Green think that their language classes are not only interesting, but a lot of fun.

Miss Oosten looks in while Mr. Hamilton and Mrs. Morris discuss a layout.

RANEY GETS "REINFORCEMENTS"

Among the new teachers at Raney this year are Miss Steven and Miss Oosten who both teach English, Mrs. Morris also teaches English and is adviser to the "QUO VADIS", and last but not least Mrs. Long who teaches arts and crafts.

Miss Steven and Mrs. Holden compare grades.

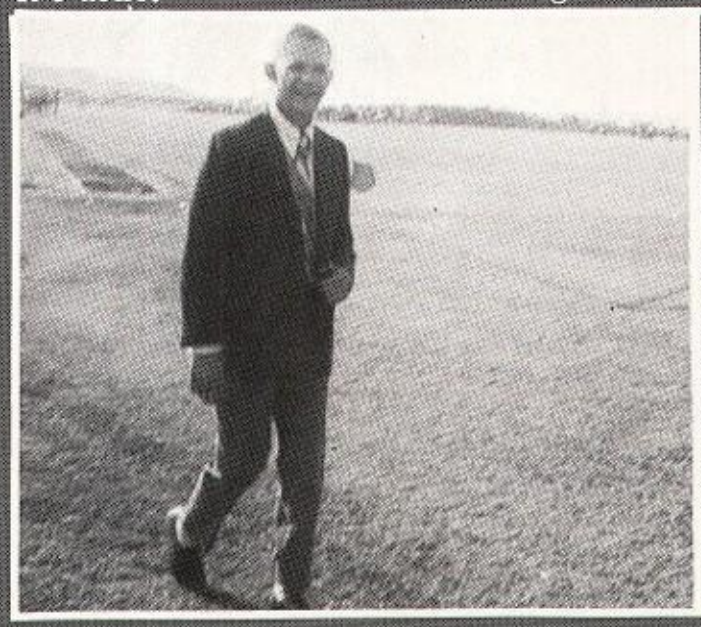
Mr. Lambert and Mr. Fay have a "history to history" talk.

OLDIES BUT GOODIES

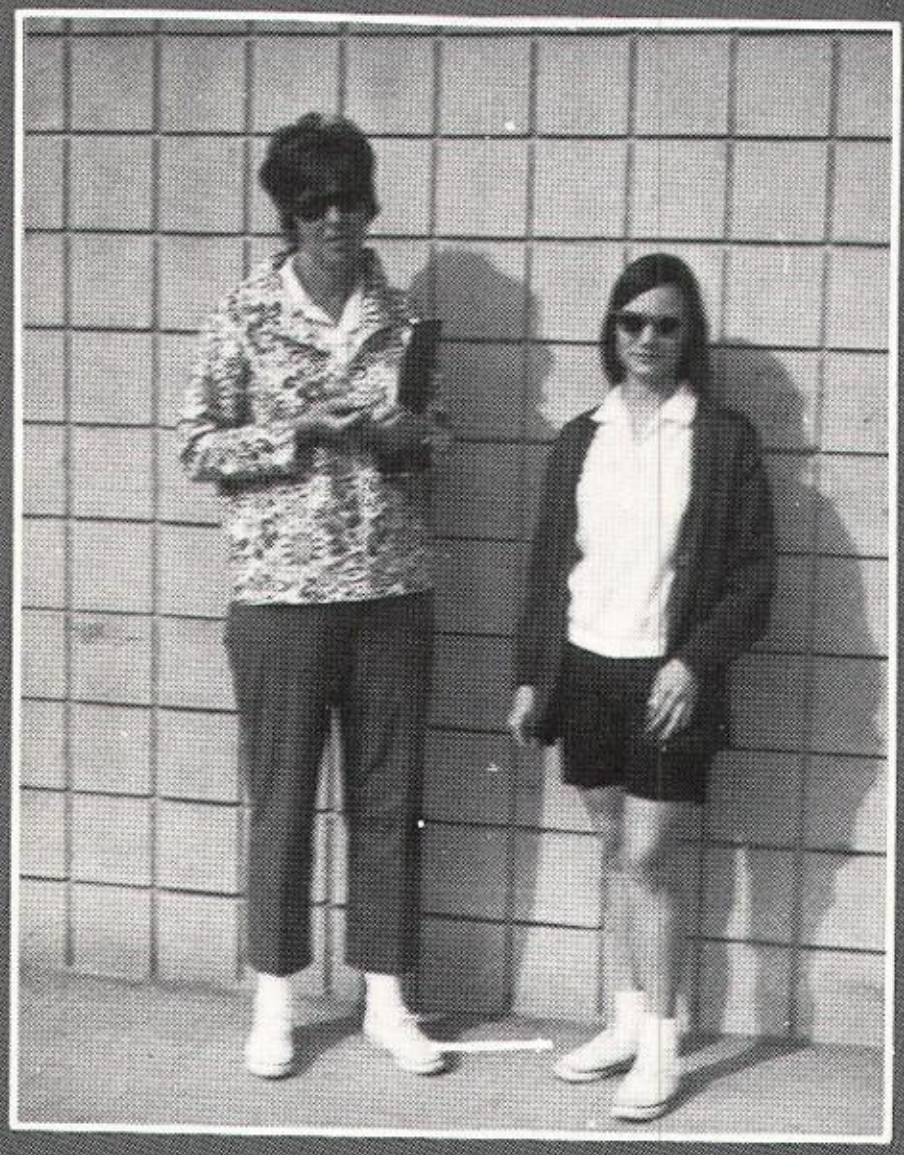
Mr. Fay and Mr. Lambert are ole "war heroes"; Mr. Kalter does his thing at art; Mrs. Holden always keeps smiling; Mr. Hamilton gets it all together with the K. W. Mrs. Fisher keeps our vocal chords working, Mr. Althoff dramatizes his classes, Mr. Vogel's classes keep in tune with the times, and Mr. Berger renews the past in a modern way. A good faculty

Mr. Vogel "explains" to Mrs. Fisher how it's done.

Mr. Berger takes a walk while Mr. Altoff pantomines eating.



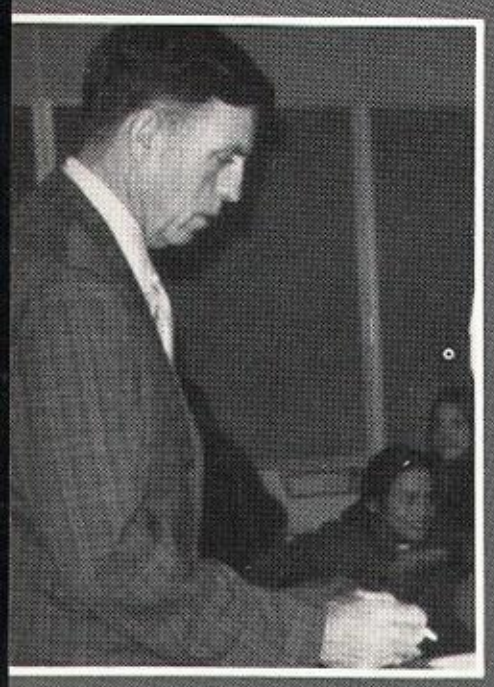
Last but not least . . .

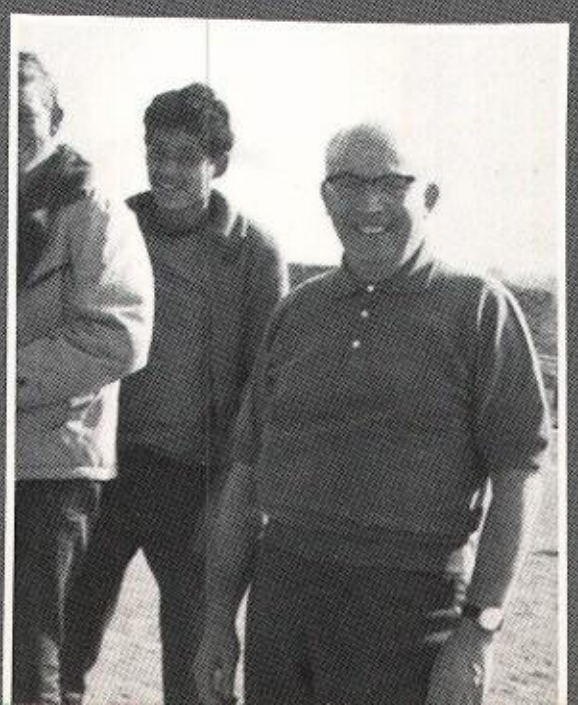


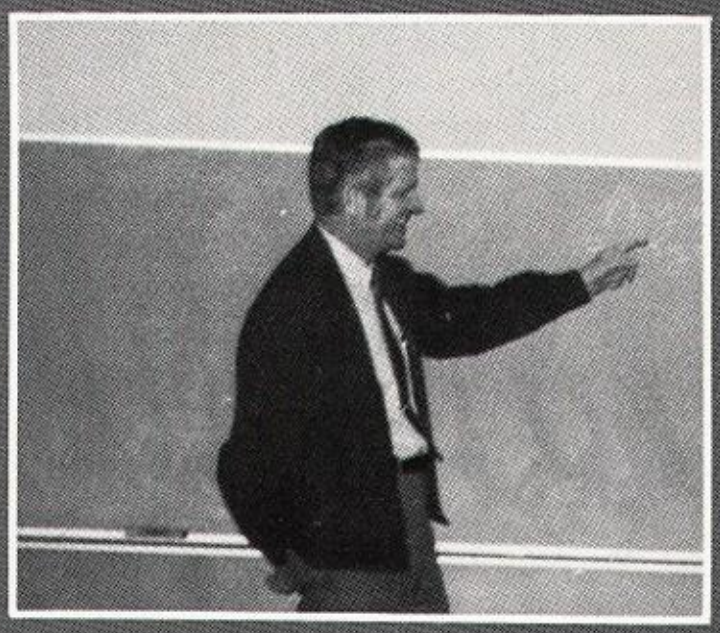
P.E. teachers Miss Geiger and Mrs. Hetherington patiently wait for the stragglers to get to rollcall.

Coach Pullian and Coach Pratt work together and make great Raney teams.

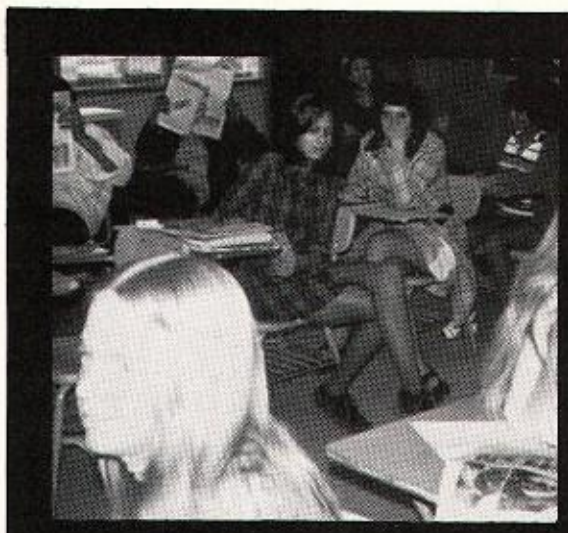
Two of Raney's teachers, who have been here the longest, are Mr. Towns and Mr. Jack.

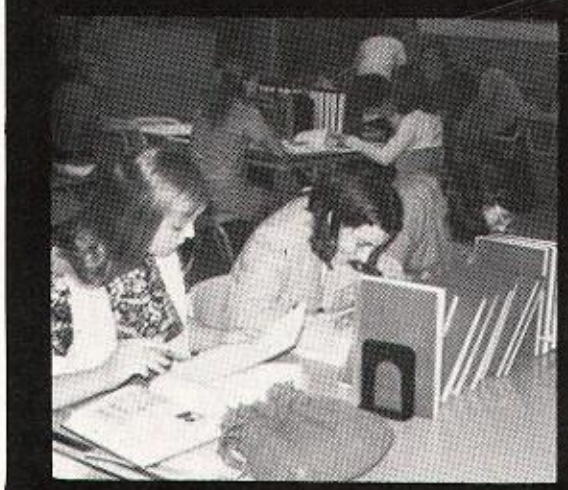






Mr. Neville is one of Raney's new teachers.





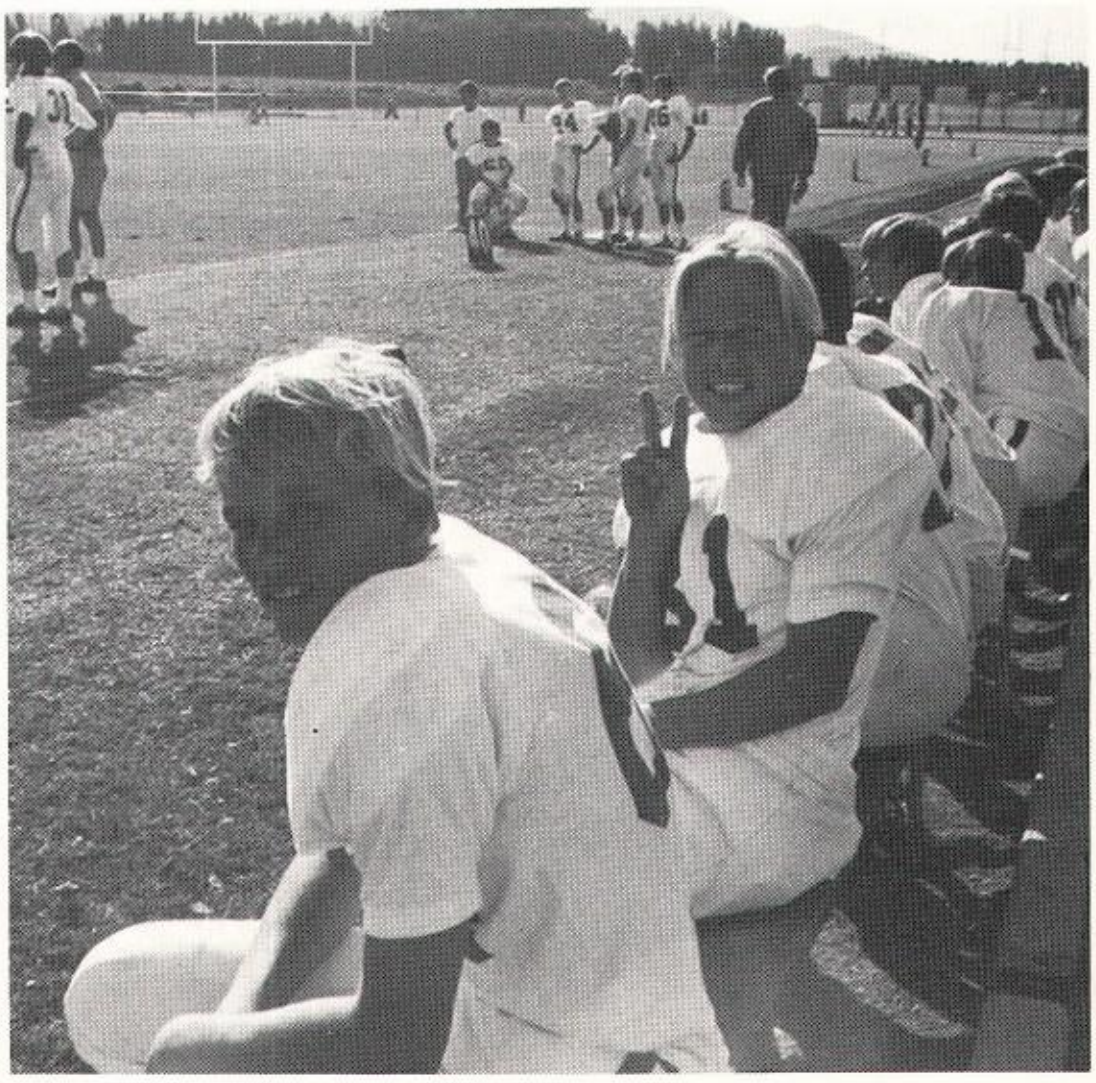
CLASSES

The ninth grade girls say good-bye to THE Mr. Van Matre, and welcome to the Mr. Best.

NEVER

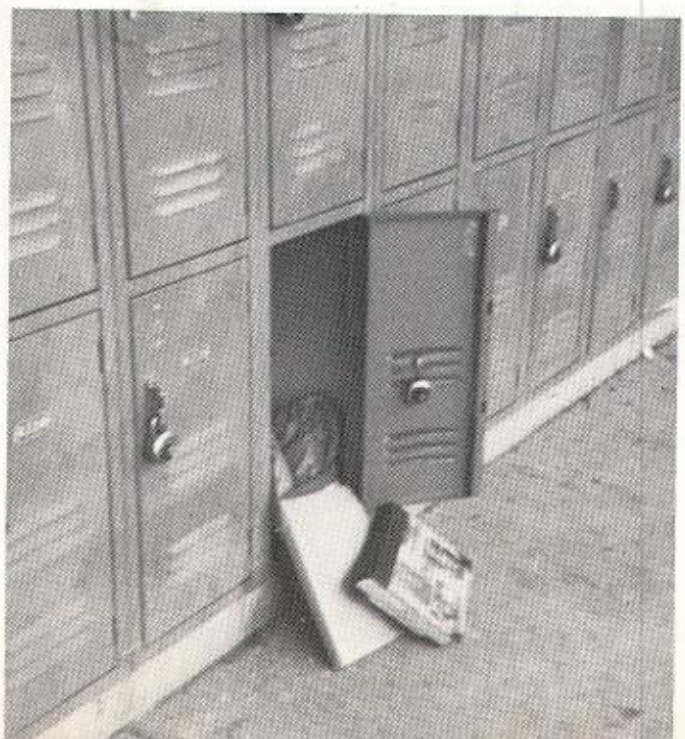
Mr. Best-Mr. Van Matre

Haming it up by the V-P's!



Peace brothers and sisters.

Remember when . . .



A DULL MOMENT

Wonder why Mr. Troxel never missed a day being at Raney during lunch?

Work, work, work

Is it all that fun?

The ninth graders show Mr. Kalter a good time.

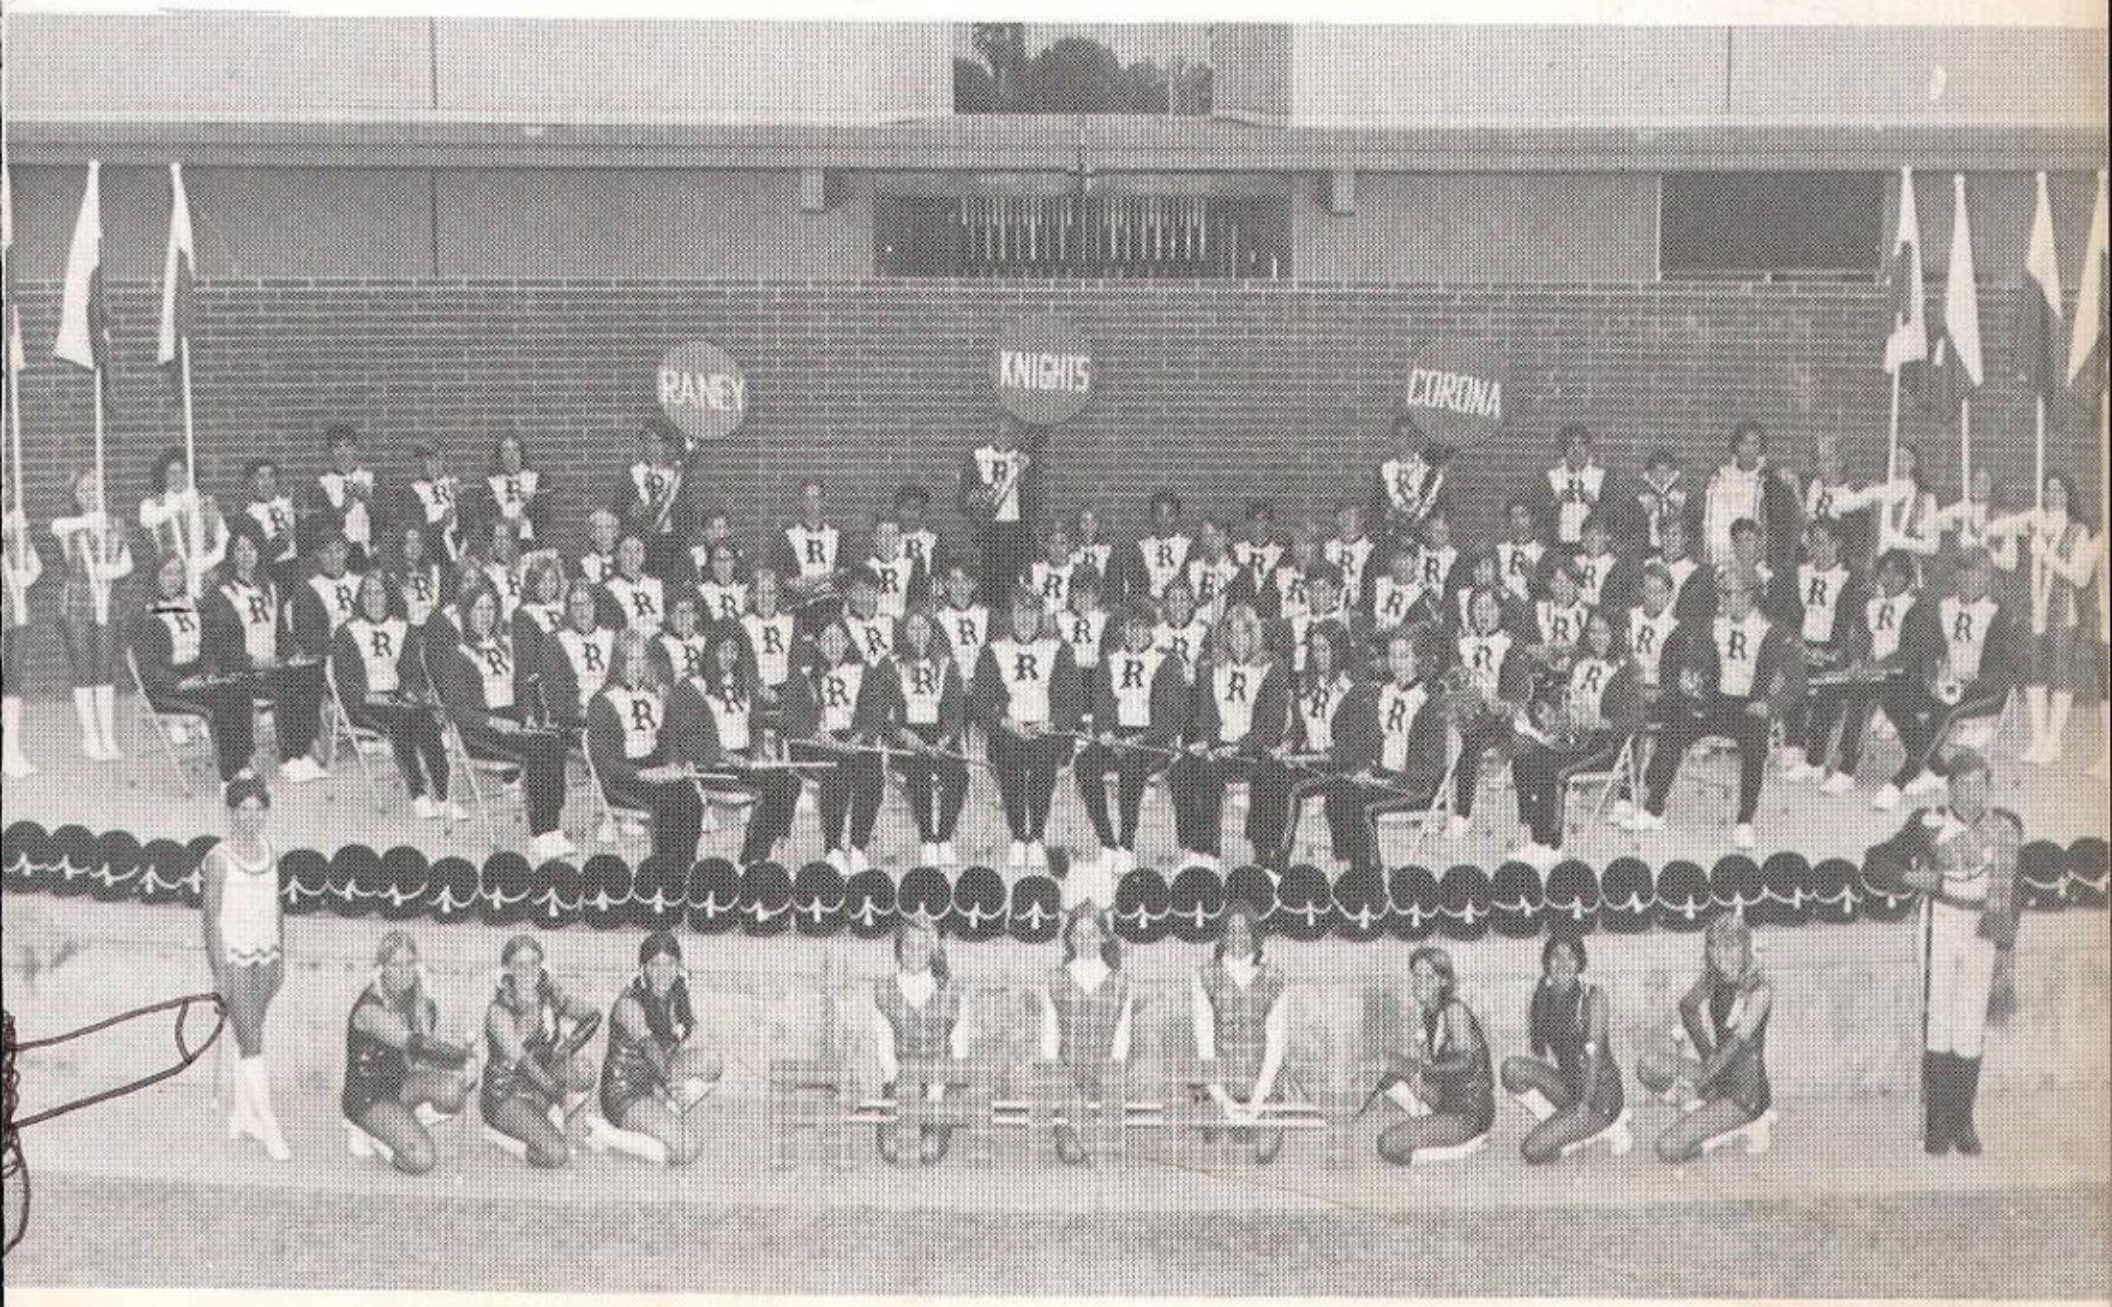
ORGANIZATIONS



STUDENT CLUBS PROVIDE

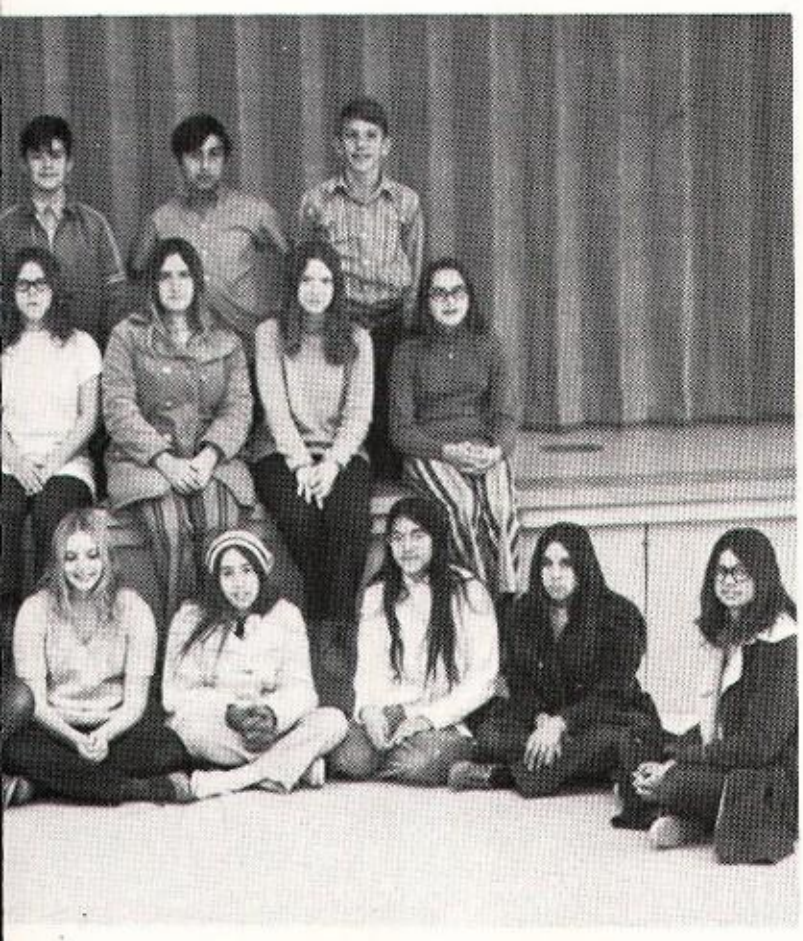
RANEY GIRLS SERVICE CLUB members are as follows: (R. 1)-Jean Cleveland, Gayle Johnson, Karin McClung, Martha Daniel, Amy Buschlen, Debbie Velker, Denise Bacon (R. 2) Mrs. Randall (sponsor) Cindy Fracasso, Karen Hatch, Michelle Vilchuck, Debbie Reese, Lelia Westover, Janet Malcolm, Sheila White, Dinaa Pina (R. 3) Lynn Bagdon, Johnnie Tarkington, Ami Pranger, Dori Davis, Merry Freeman, Genie Vasels, Patti Flores.

Here the Drama Club members practice a play.

FUN AND ENTERTAINMENT

As in the past, Raney's clubs have captured student interest. The various organizations give students a break from the studying and testing and give them a chance to have some fun and entertainment. These various clubs are sponsored by a teacher who volunteers services so the students can have an opportunity to participate in school functions. For instance, Raney Girls Service Club help with different service jobs such as, serving at P. T. A. meetings and at other activities where help is needed. The Spanish Club, on the other hand, provides a different type of interest to the students. They do different things taking field trips and learning more of the Spanish culture. By this, the student develops academically and mentally. The Drama Club is also a service. They entertain the students with different skits and plays while they learn the different techniques of drama.

These are the members of the Spanish Club



Here is another of the plays the Drama Club produced.

AIDES HELP STUDENTS, TEACHERS

AIDES are for everyone. They not only help teachers, but make classes fun by helping out the students. Whether it is learning the corecct way to play tennis, or distinguishing a proton from a neutron they help. Library aides sometimes give up their snack and free time before and after school, just to serve you. The Lab Aides are all boys this year, but they prove to do a good job anyway. Whichever aid it is, they help and that's what counts. Besides, if it weren't for them who else (aides from the Administration) would yell at us.

LIBRARY AIDES, Left to Right, Row 1: C. Frasco, L. Lachman, S. Downing, K. Huff, O. Gracia, E. Ornelas, R. Daniel. Row 2: Mrs. Wilaon, A. Yardly, L. Stockton, T. Hildebrand, L. Chaffy, A. Jones, S. Peterson.

LAB AIDES help all science teachers with their classes. The Lab Aides from LEFT TO RIGHT are: R. Chapman, C. Nelson, D. Titius, R. Barajas, S. Peterson, R. Velasques.

P. E. aides play P. E. too.

OFFICE AIDES help in the office during class time sending messages, passes, and attendence sheets, to classes in session.

P. E. AIDES help Miss Geiger and Mrs. Hetherington take roll, put up equipment, take out towels and turn on the showers.

CREATIVITY AND WORK: Q.V. STAFF

Amy Jendrock talks about the pictures as Linda Wade intently listens.

"Creativity and Work" was this years Quo Vadis staffs' theme because that is what it takes to produce a good and interesting yearbook. The staff takes great pride this year because they have gotten away from the usual yearbook. For example, the cover this year is embaused (raised).

The yearbook staff also experienced a new teacher, Mrs. Morris. She is also an English teacher.

The staff worked together with Mrs Morris during the year in order to meet with the deadlines in which the pages of the yearbook had to be sent in. Everyone deserves credit on the yearbook.

We hope you will enjoy this yearbook and all the memories it will bring as you look at it in the years to come. We present to you the 1971-72 "Quo Vadis"

Mrs. Morris, Journalism teacher, helps "Stretch" with a layout.

Here is the 1971-72 yearbook staff who work hard during the year to produce Raney's yearbook, "Quo Vadis."

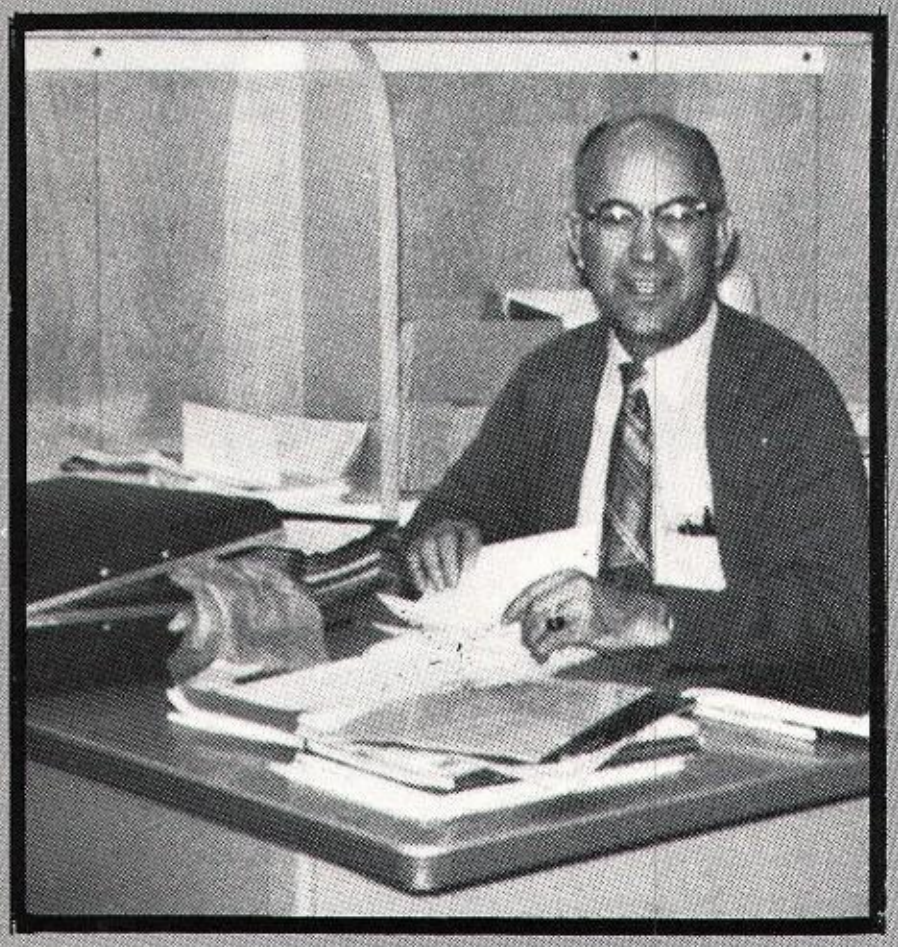
MR. HAMILTON AND K.W. STAFF A



The Knight Watchman, Raney's newspaper was produced again this year by Mr. Hamilton's Journalism class. They had a very excellent paper prepared by a group of creative students filled with enthusiasm and pride in their school. They carried over ideas from Mr. Kalter's art class and from the various departments to make the paper more meaningful. Both journalism classes at Raney are made up of students who are dependable, honest and eager to improve the school.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPS

Bob is heading for the hills!

Raney piles up a record score of 72 points or more at each meet.

Coach Pulliam said,
"It is the best team

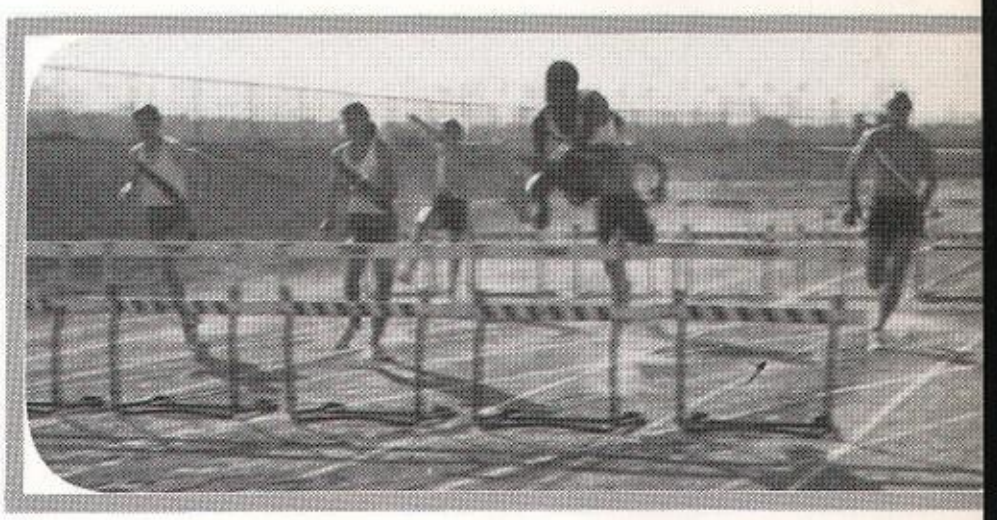
Danny jumps for joy!



Nobody beats these guys!

Danny sure likes to fly!

Alan decides to stretch and lay down for awhile.

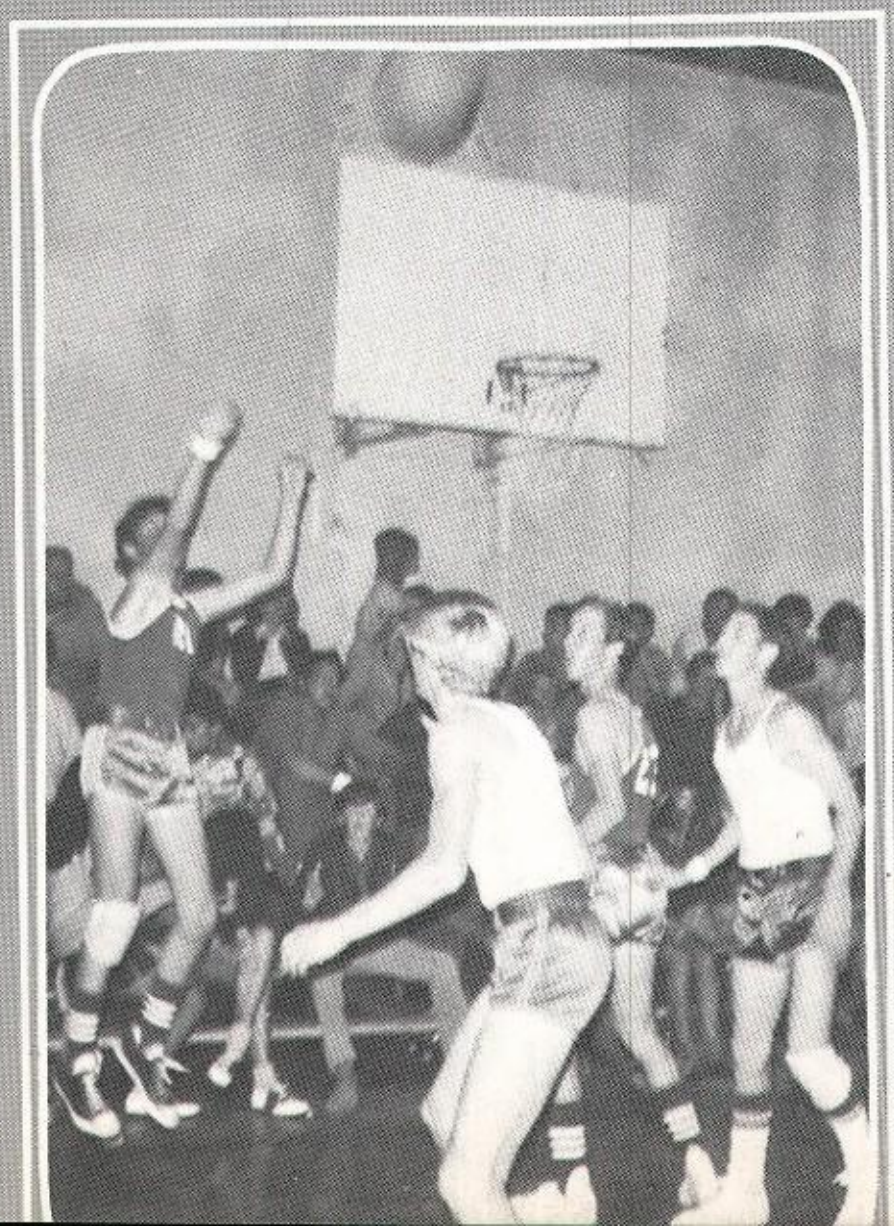
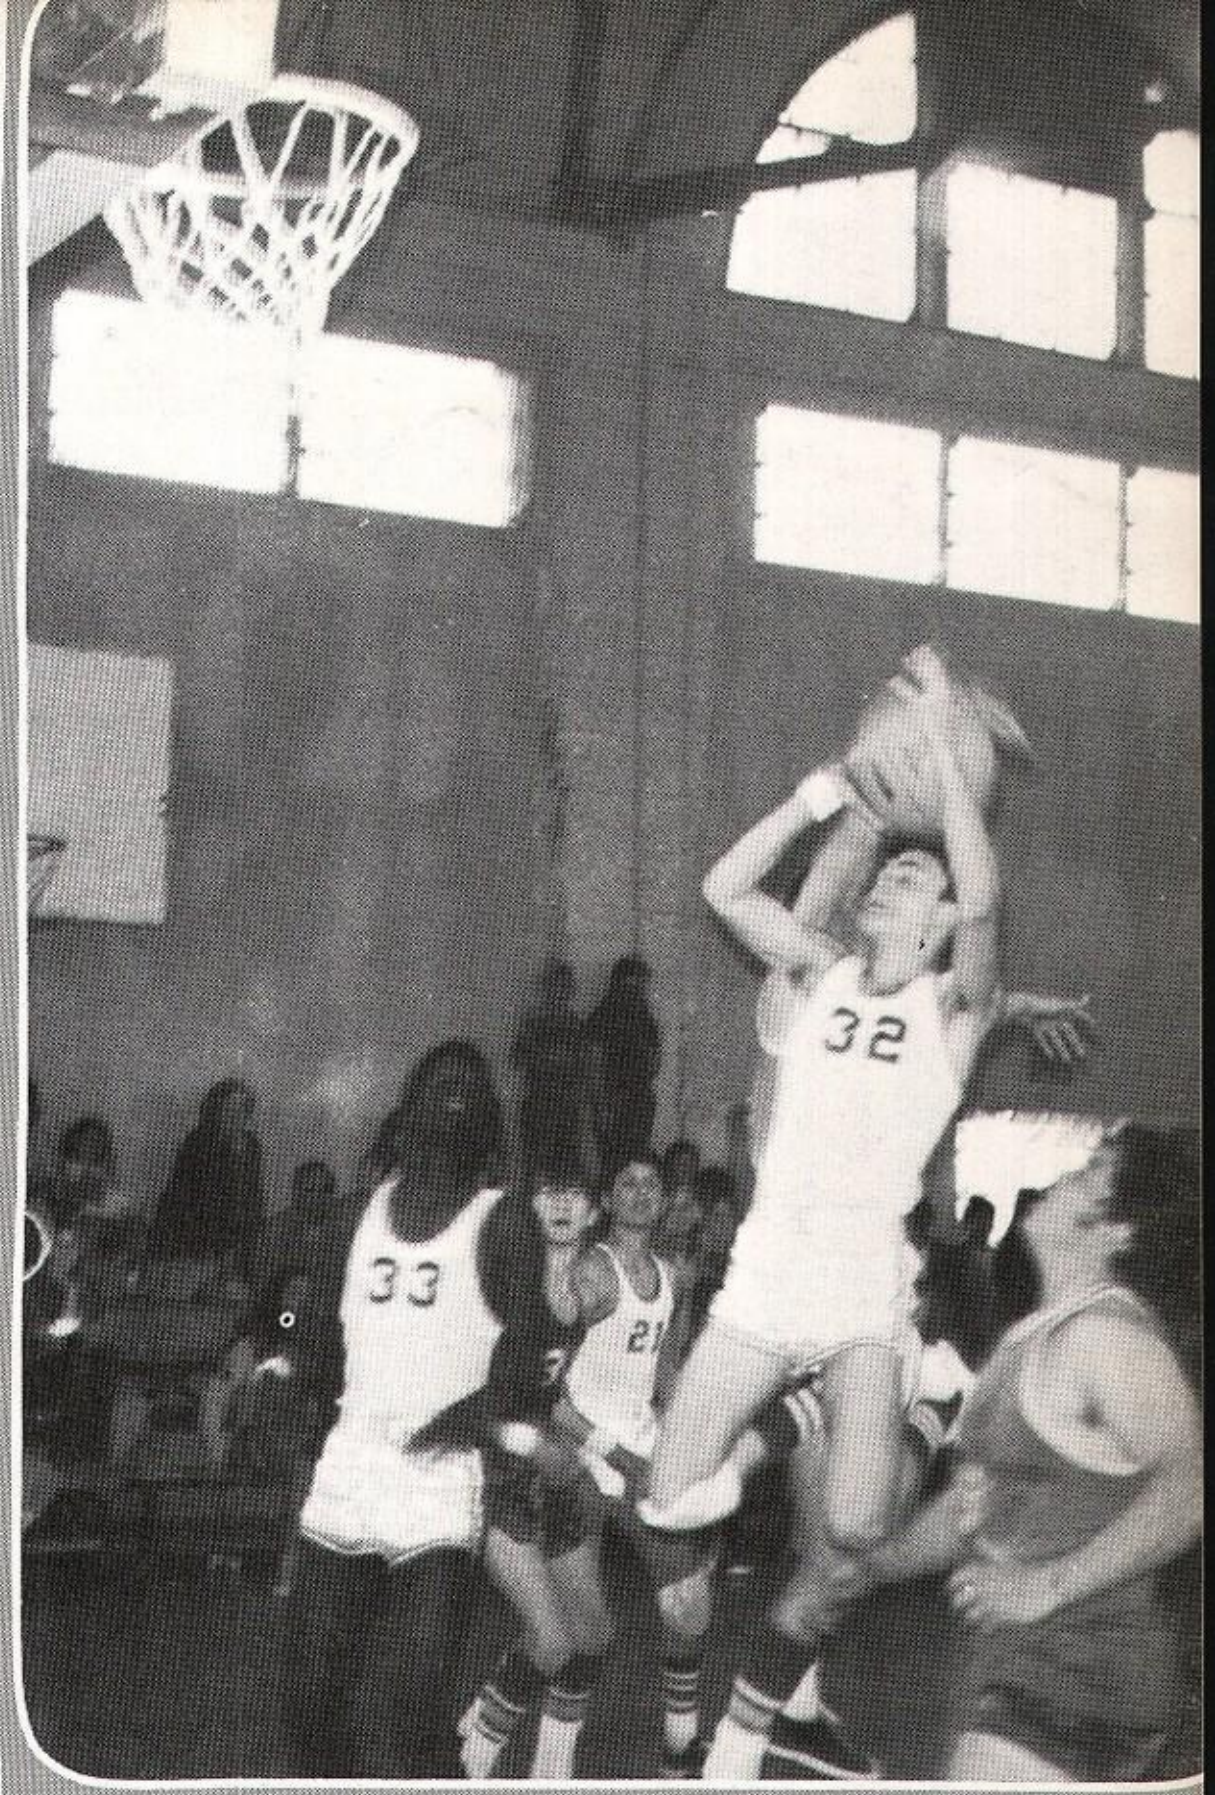
Rusty Ingraham shoots from near the free throw line and gets two points.

Joey Cisneros shows his skill and makes two big points from the corner.



Jeff Jeans makes two points from this beautiful lay-up.

Alan McClory jumps to shoot, but his shot is blocked.



Letha Raney's basketball team has some of the most skillful players on their team, and even though they did not win first place in the district, they still put up a good fight. Coach Pratt put out a lot of his time and effort to teach the team what they had to do as a team and how they had to work as a team to be successful.

Here is a shot of the Raney bench as they wait for their turn to go out and help their team.

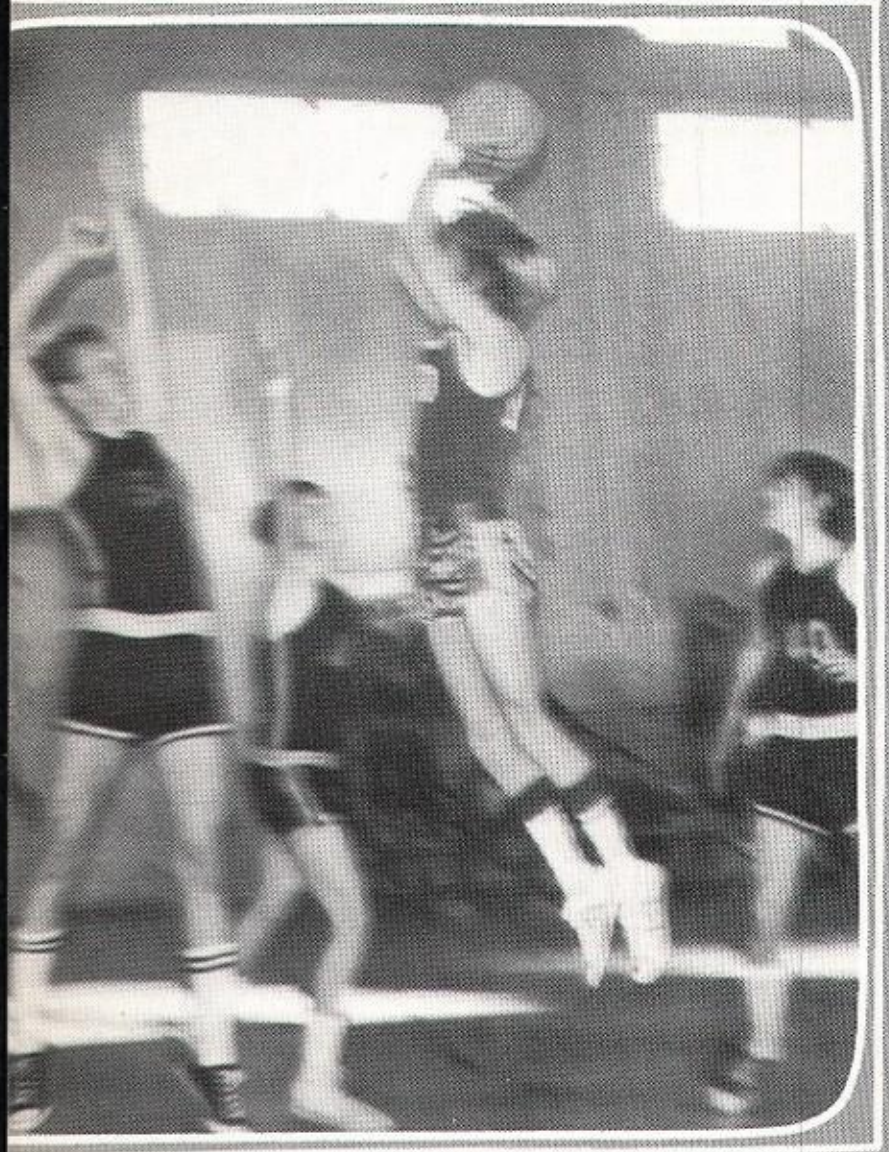
If Blankenship could have seen where he was going, no telling how far he could have gone.

Kevin Kelley soars high for two points.



Raney's 8th grade basketball team led by the shooting of Brad Blankenship captured the Allessandro consolation trophey.

The battle of the giants.

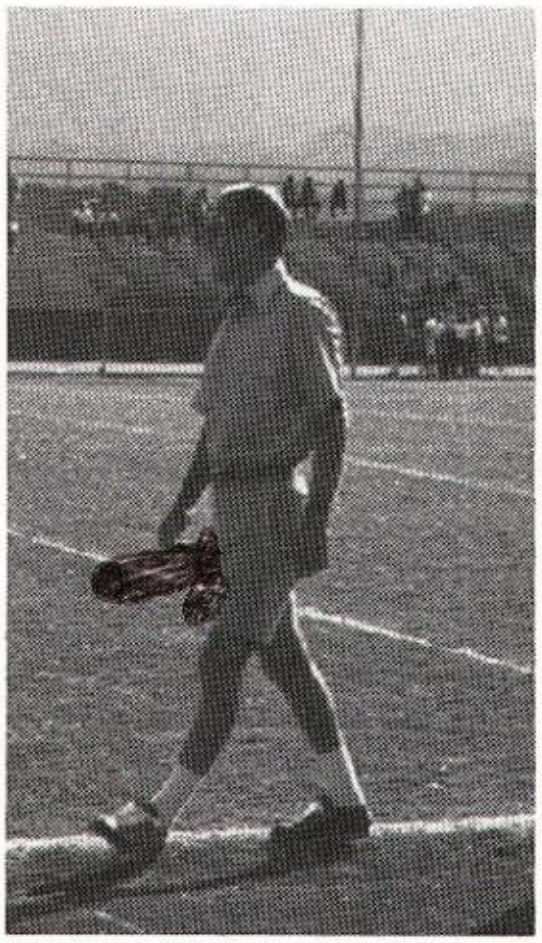
SPORTS HELP GENERATE ENTHUSIASM

All around activities are held this year - Golf is now getting to be a "big thing" at Raney. Our school is always looking ahead.

Jeff Jeans Wins

Work! Work is coach Pulliam!

Steve Huckabone wins.



Phil Urbina does great.

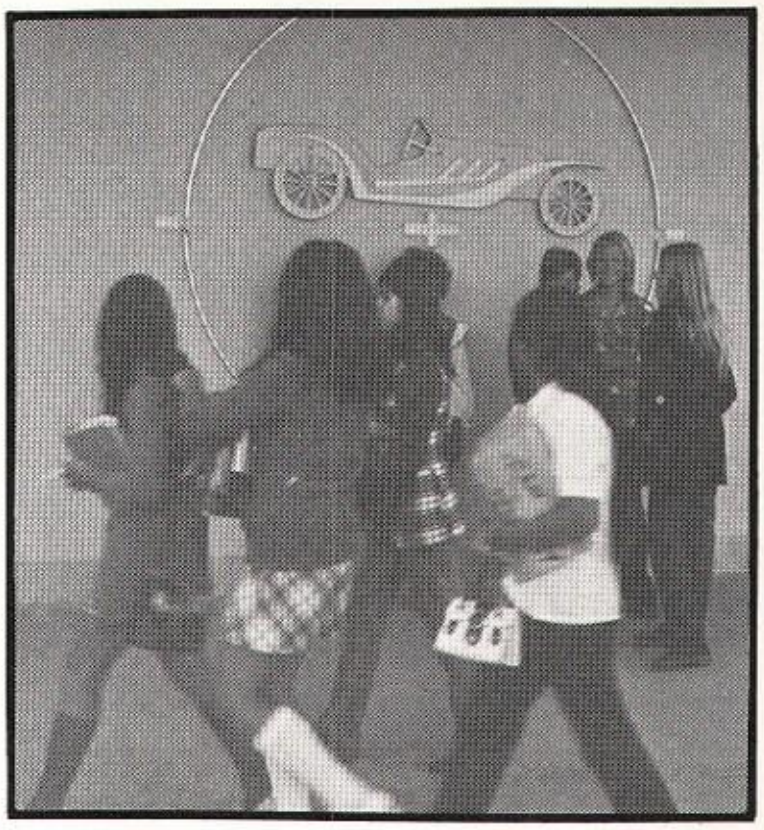
Our fine coaches provide a variety of sports. They can always be found on the school campus with students involved.

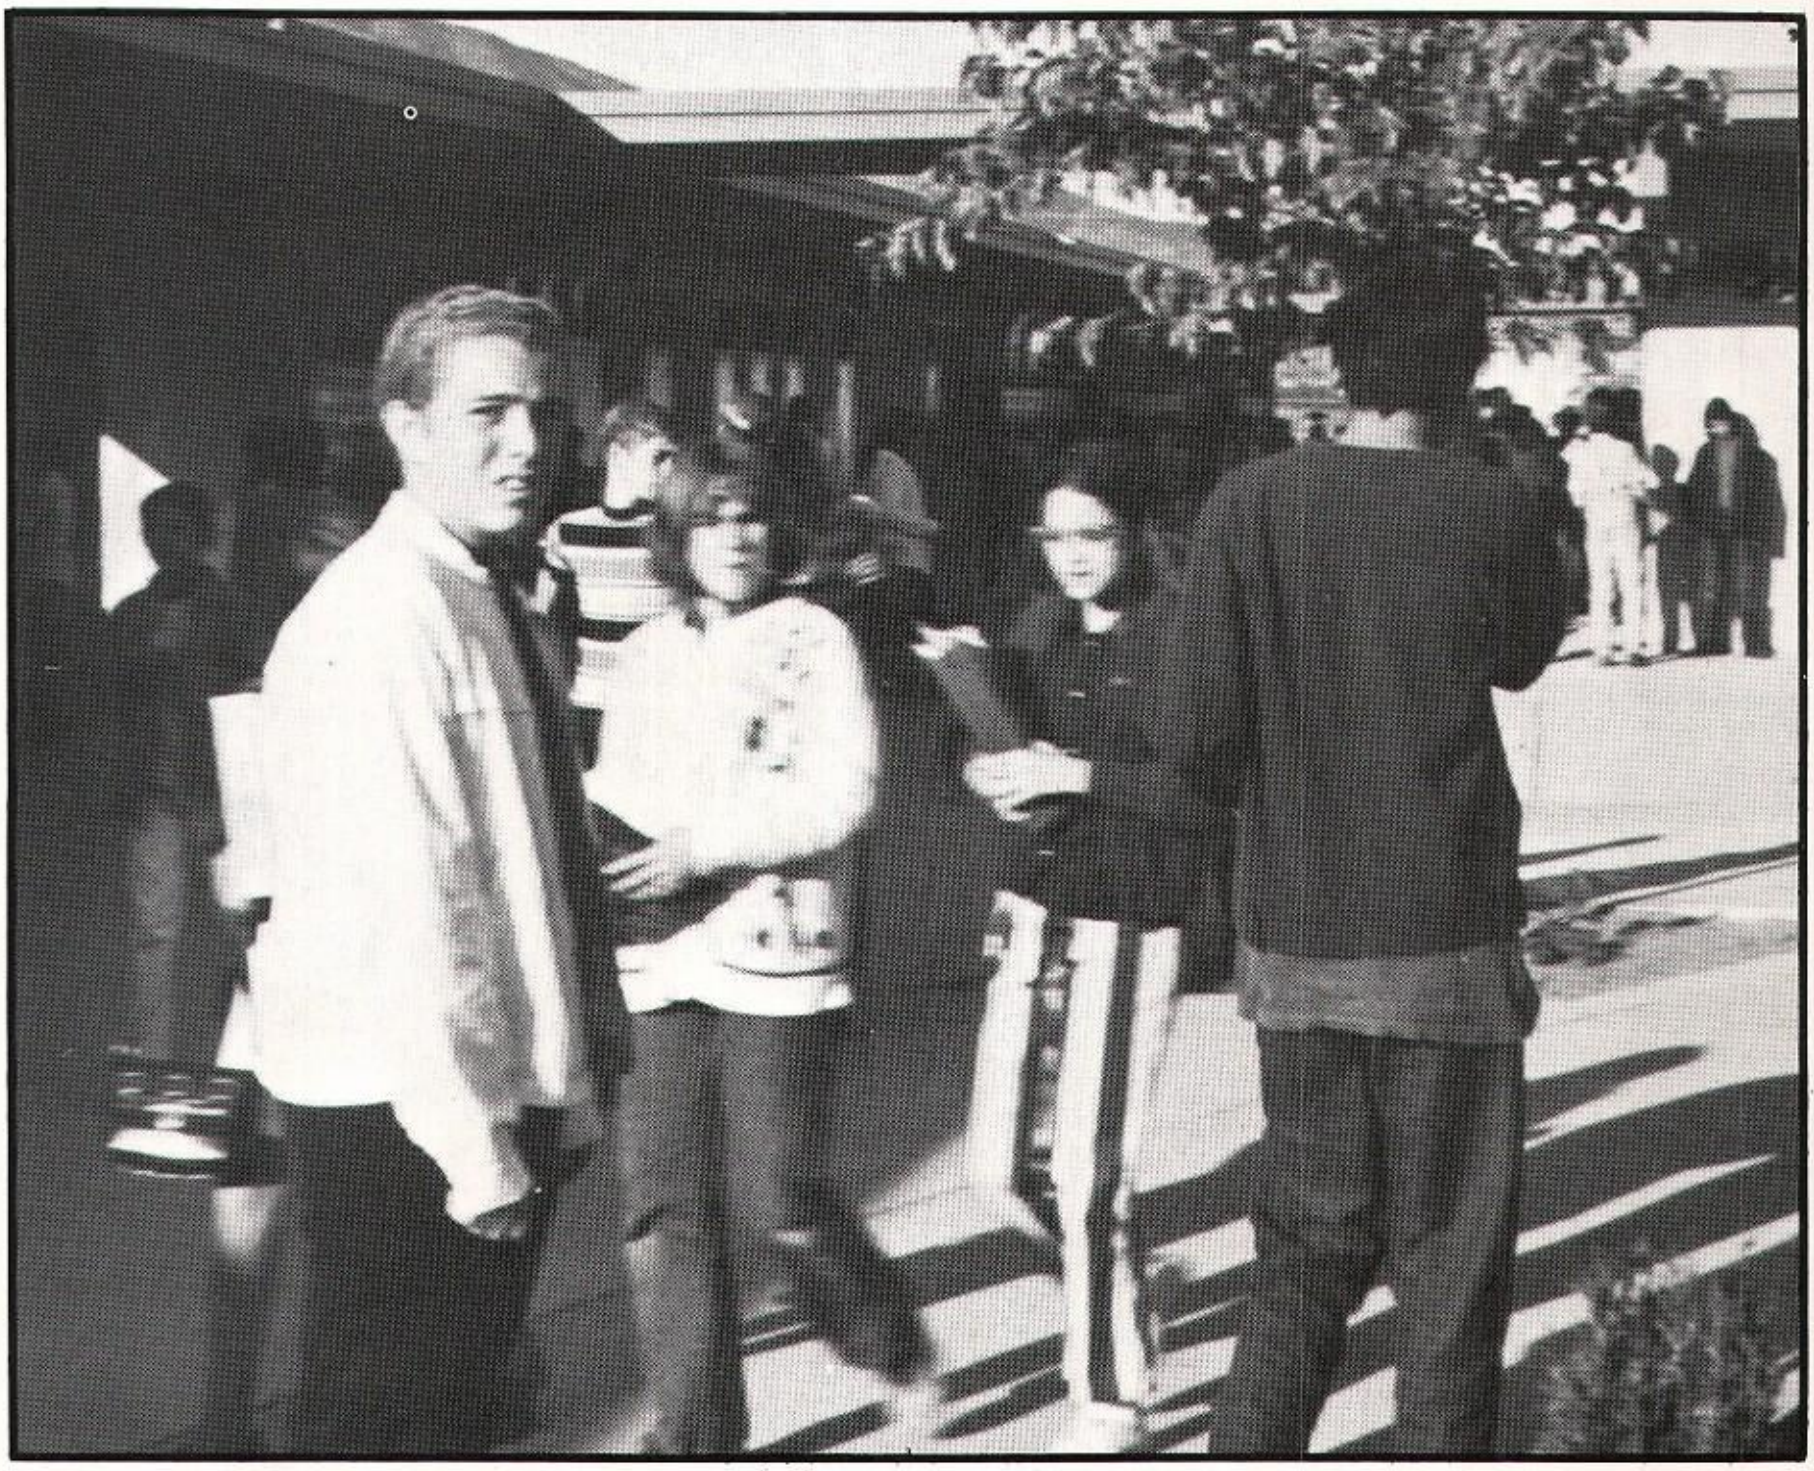
Intermediate band progresses faster than you think. They work to the best of their advantage and strive for perfection!

A Time for Work and a Time for Play

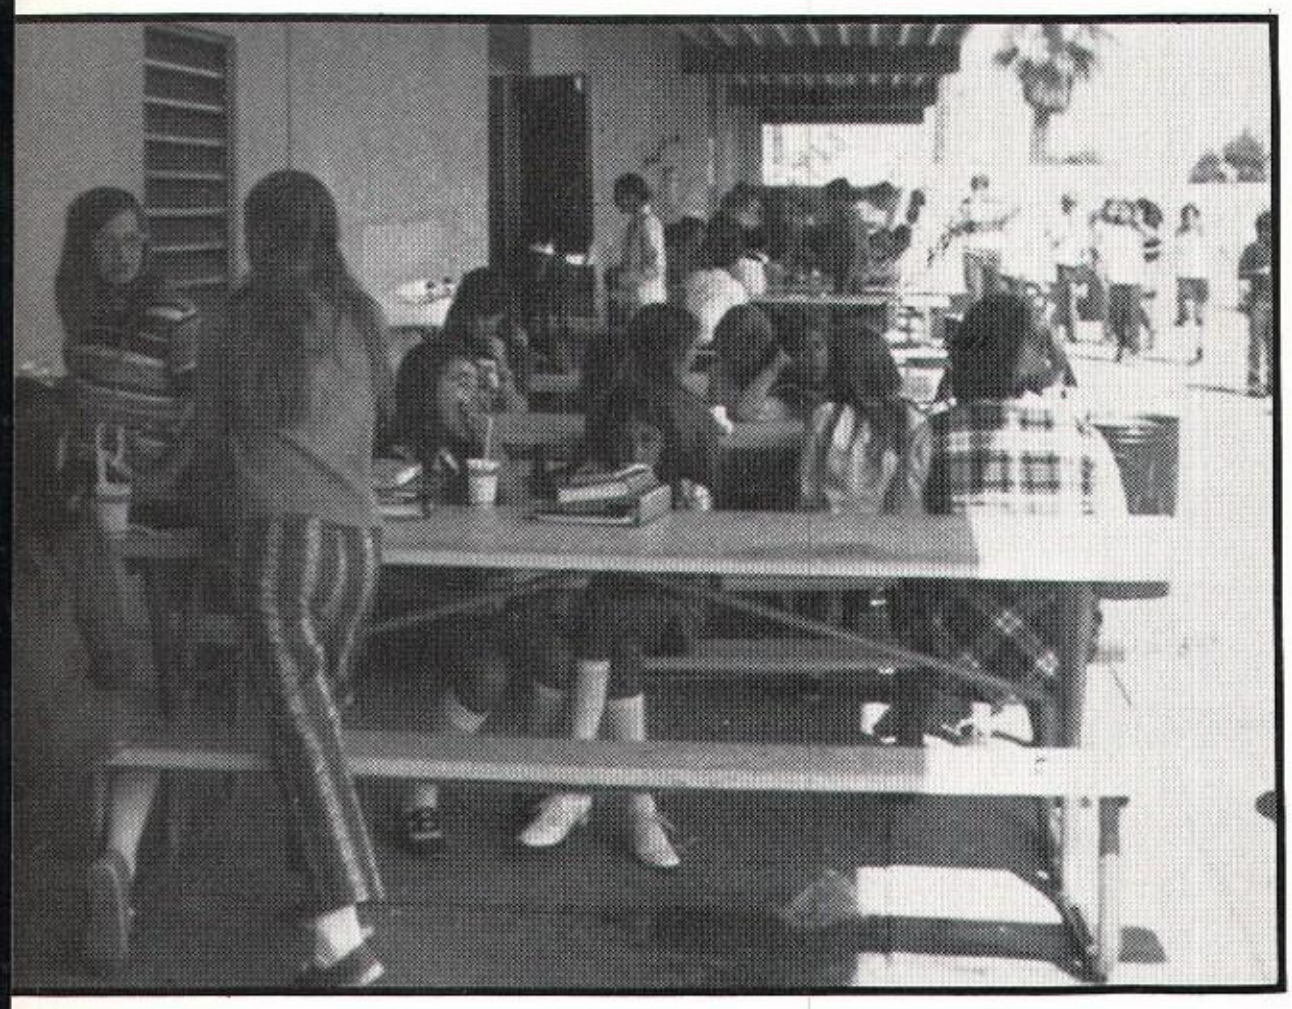
"School days, school days, good 'ole golden rule days . . ." That's how the song once went, but today it's being sung and played differently. There's many more exciting classes than the "3R's" our parents knew. There are 3 bands, beginning band, Intermediate, and marching band, which represents our school in competition. The choir is large but can really carry a tune! They perform in the Christmas program, and Spring Concert. Whossays school has to be a drag!

Student Council helps to improve the school problems by giving their opinions. They also improve activities for the students. They improved the school environment by organizing the school clean-up campaign.

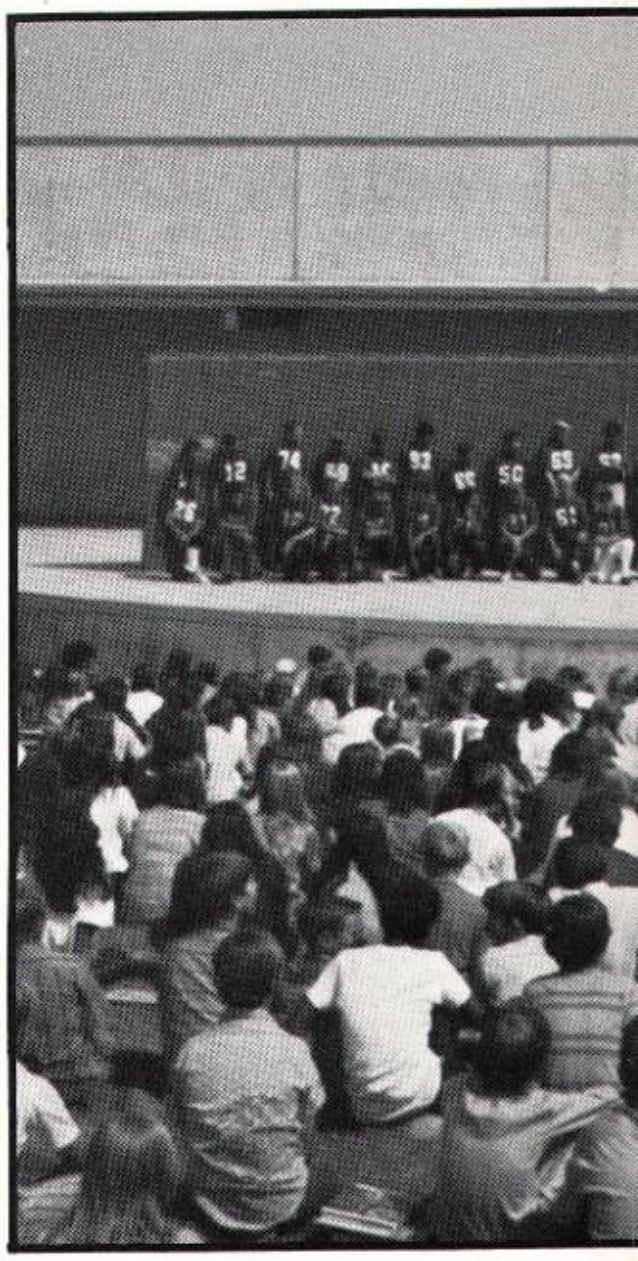




CAMPUS LIFE



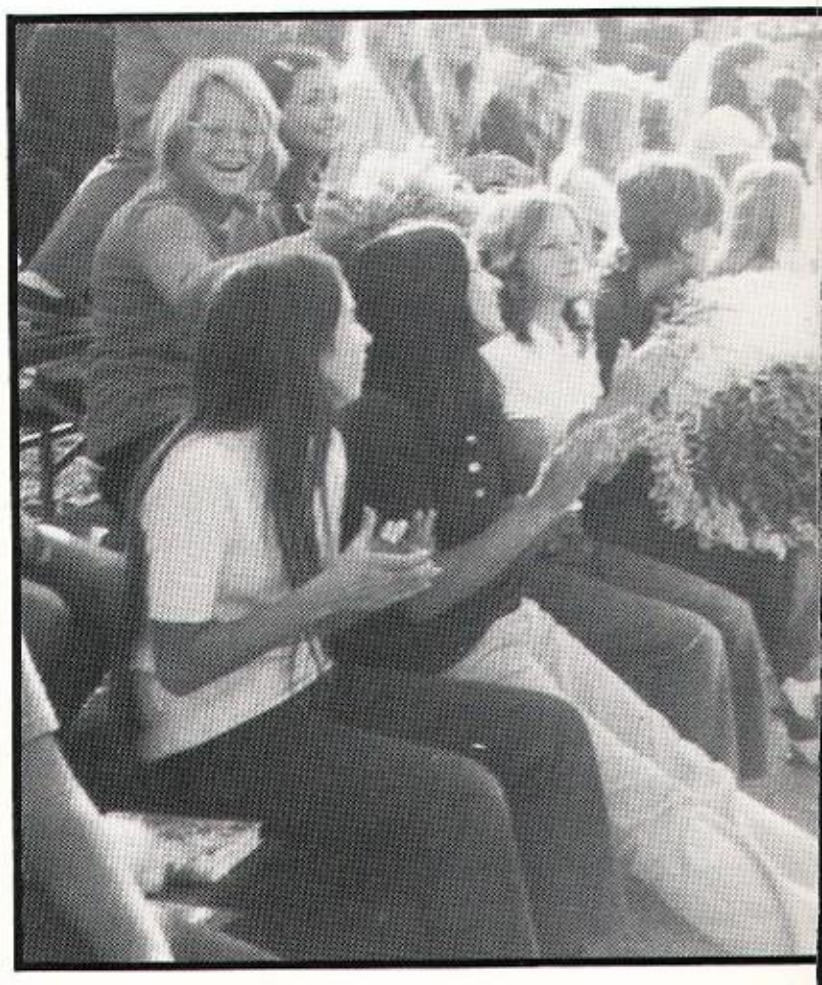
At lunch Raney students sit and enjoy their lunch.

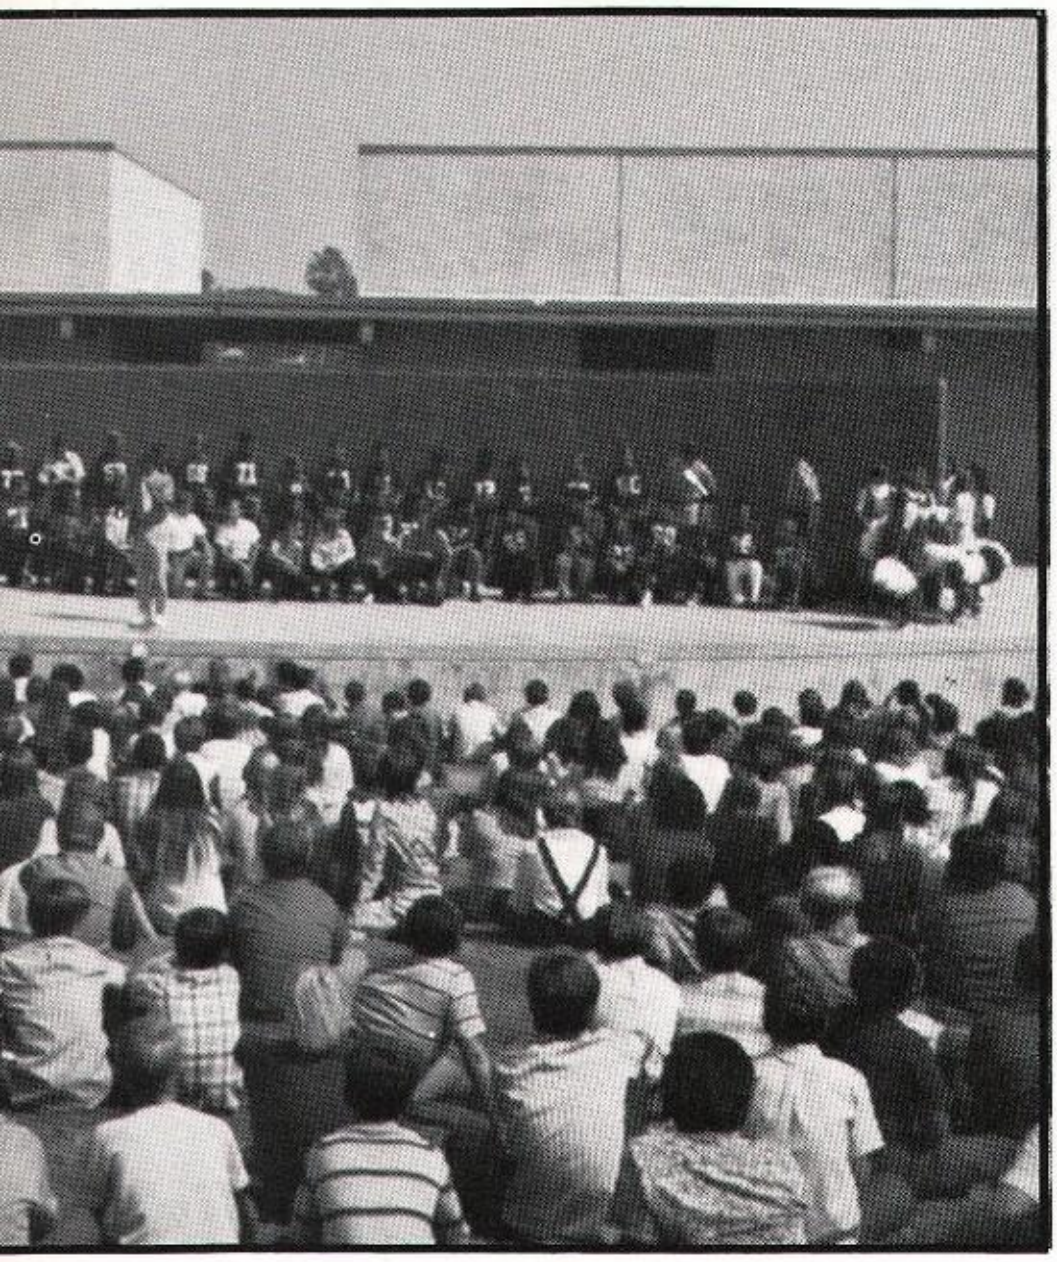


STUDENTS ARE BUSY ON CAMPUS AND OFF!

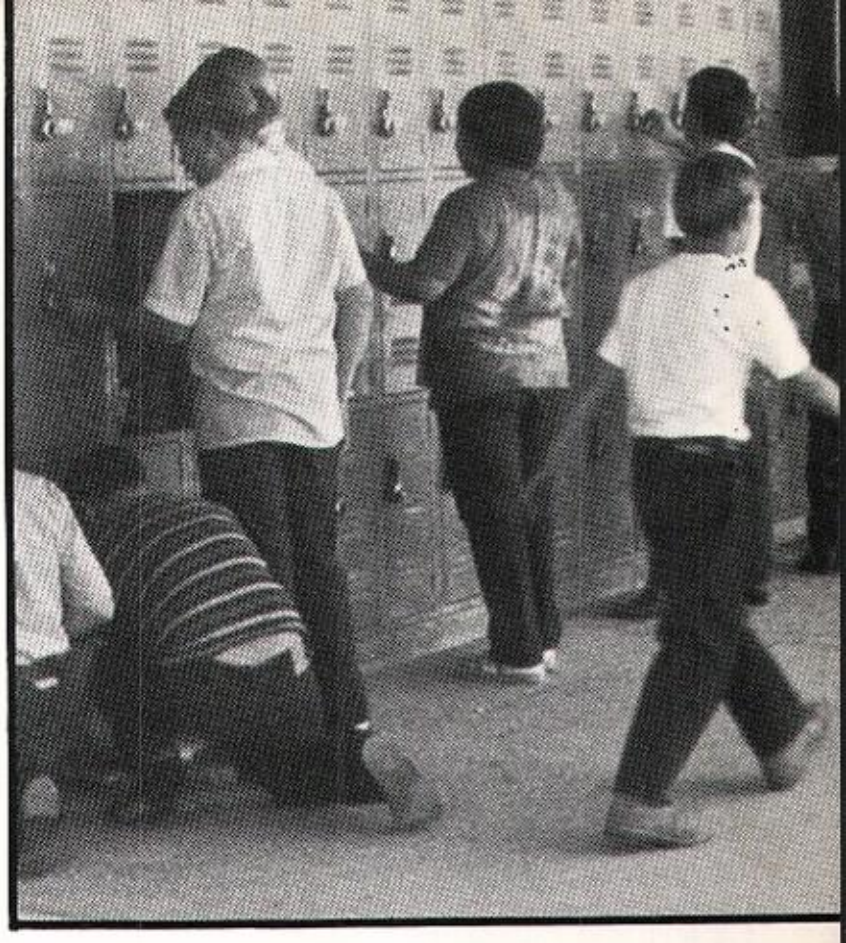
Even though students are busy during school they have their own duties such as football games, clubs, and other activities.

The students cheer for the Raney Football team.





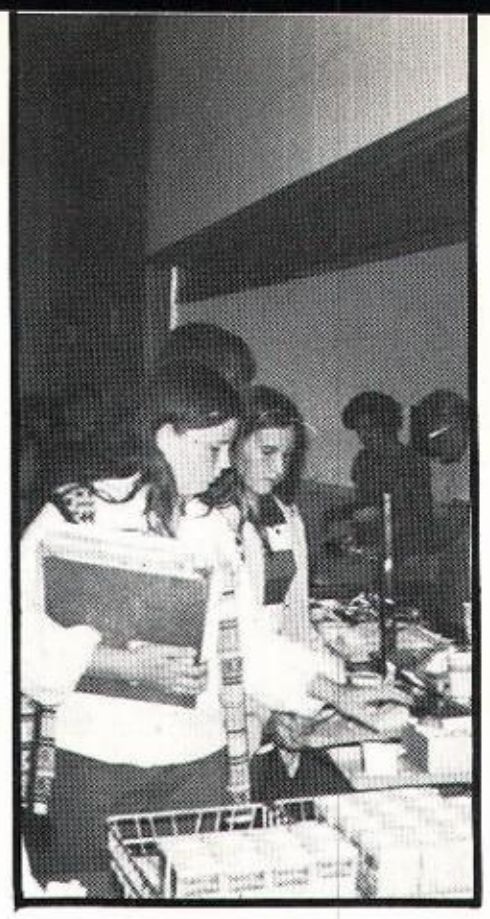
Raney students assemble to honor the football team.



In-between class; students rush to their lockers to prepare for the next class.

After School, the Cheerleaders cheer for the students at the games.

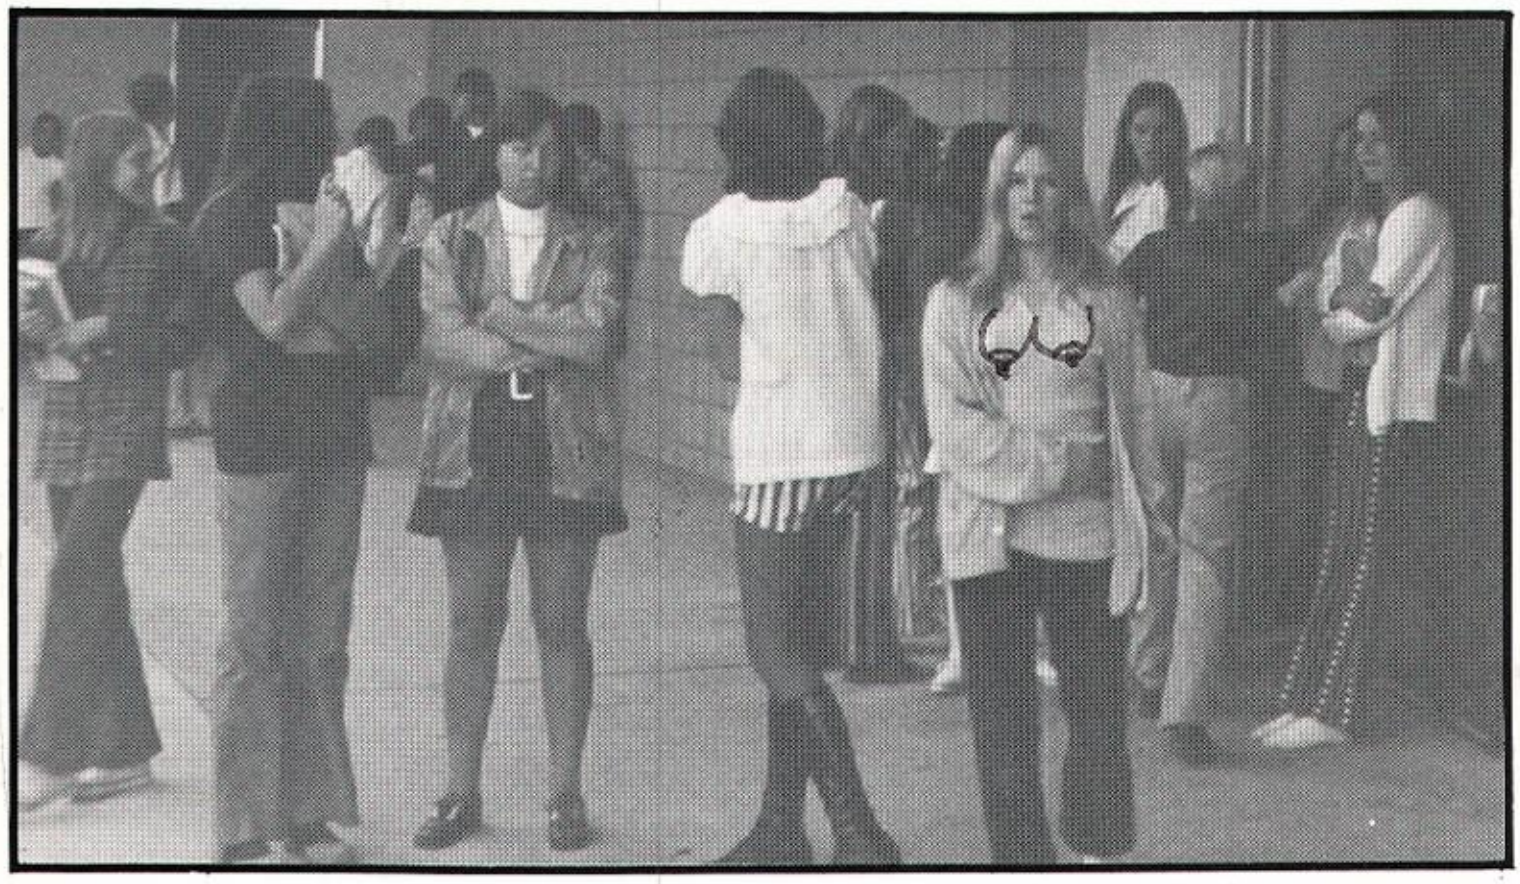
RANEY PEOPLE



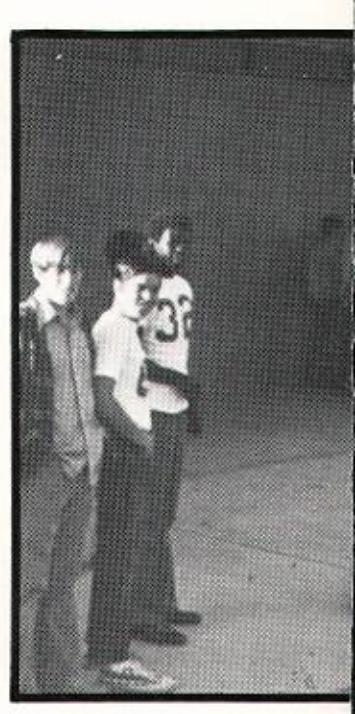
Here comes the Raney food fans.

Smile and be happy, and the world will smile with you.

Introducing. . . . . Raney's fabulous, fantastic flub-up football team.

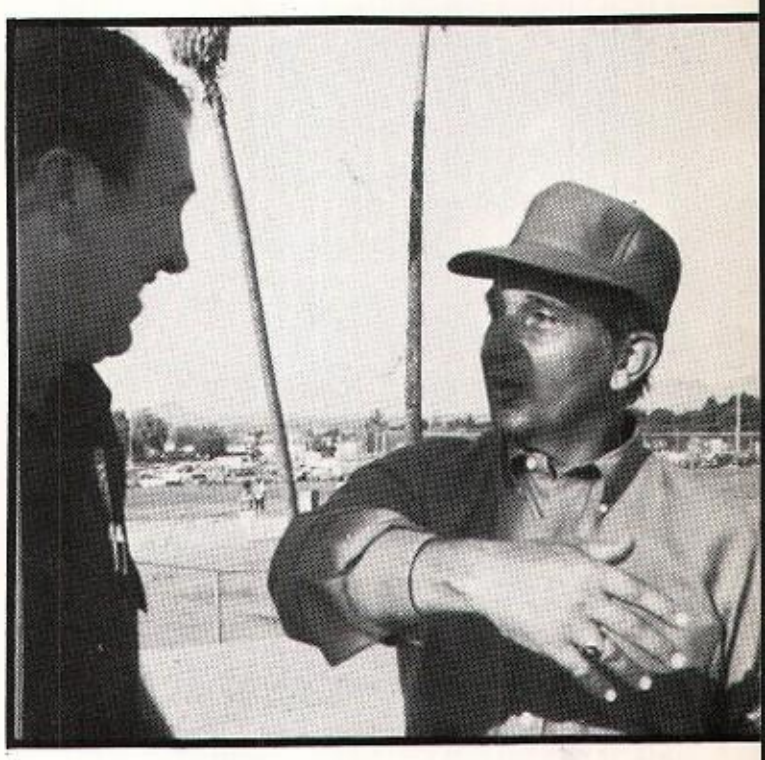


It's always a mad rush to the P. E. room after the first bell.

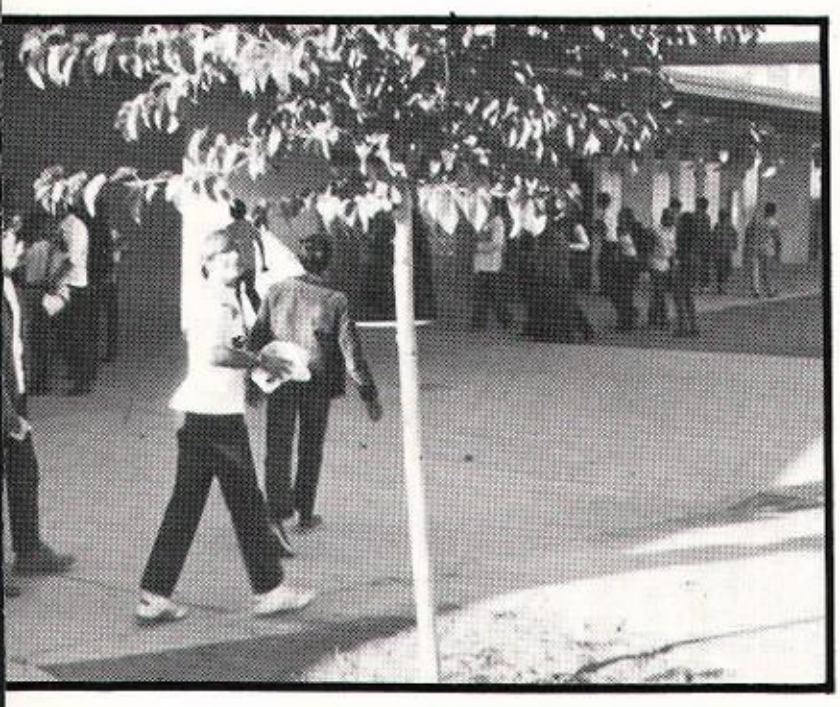


ARE HAPPY PEOPLE

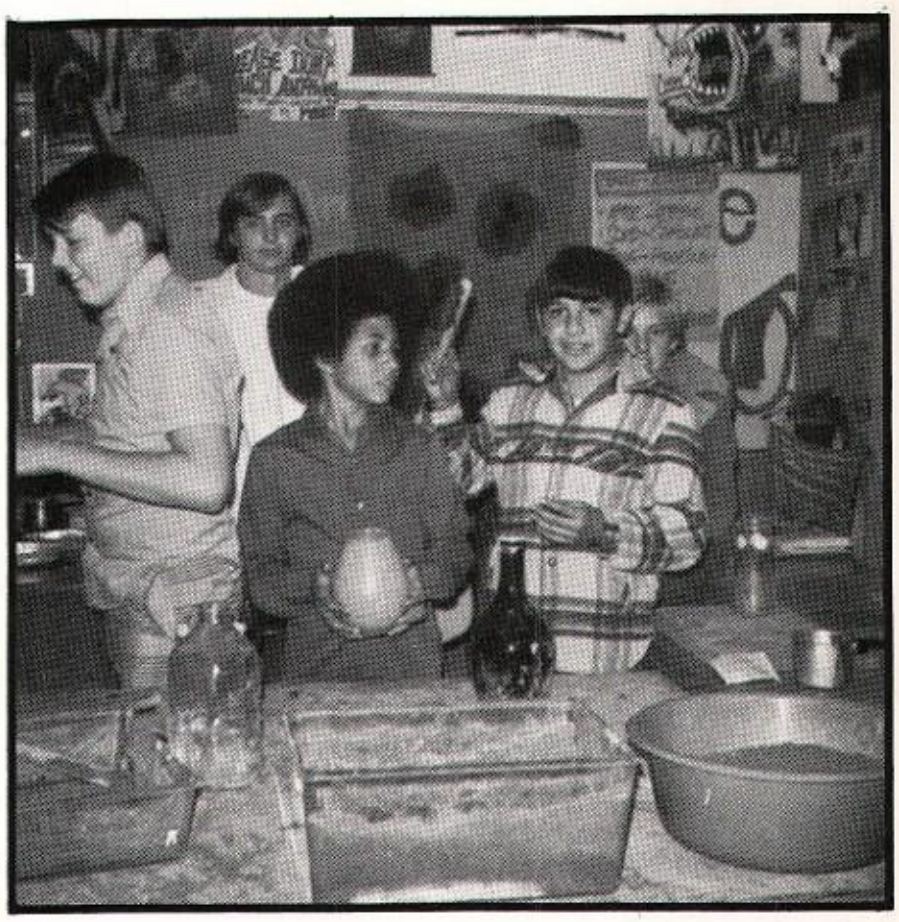
"Have a nice day," is one of today's most popular slogans, and at Raney we take it literally. Almost everywhere you look, you see a smiling face, whether you are in the lunch line, sitting in the library, or rushing into class with 2 seconds to spare which only goes to prove that school is one of the best places to have fun!



Mr. Van Matre is trying to explain one of his new ideas to Officer Watson.

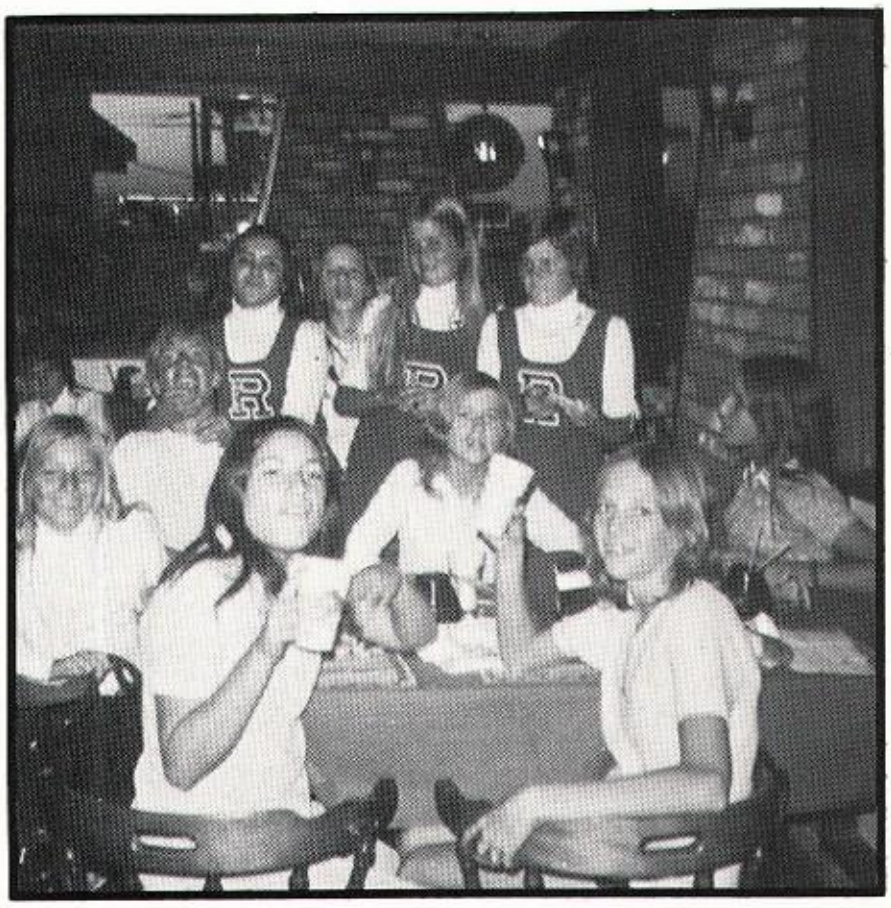


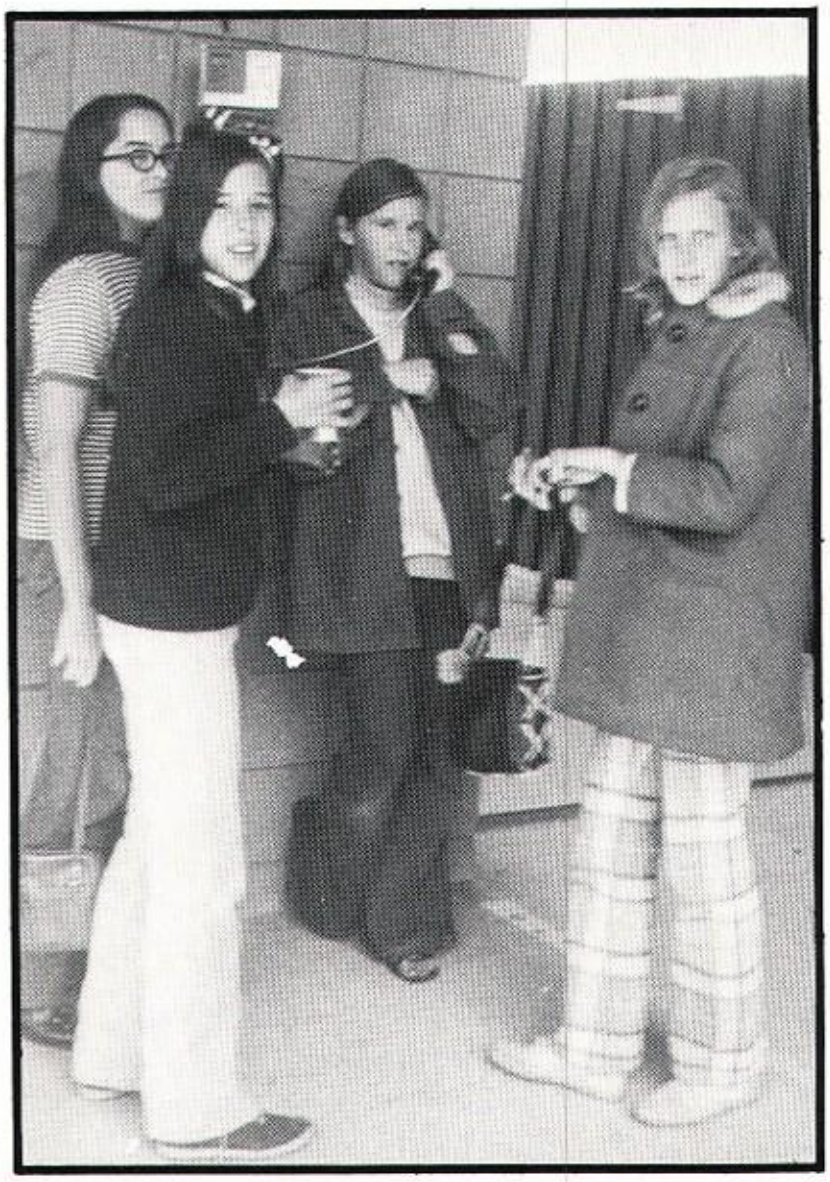
Our football fellas' hamming it up!



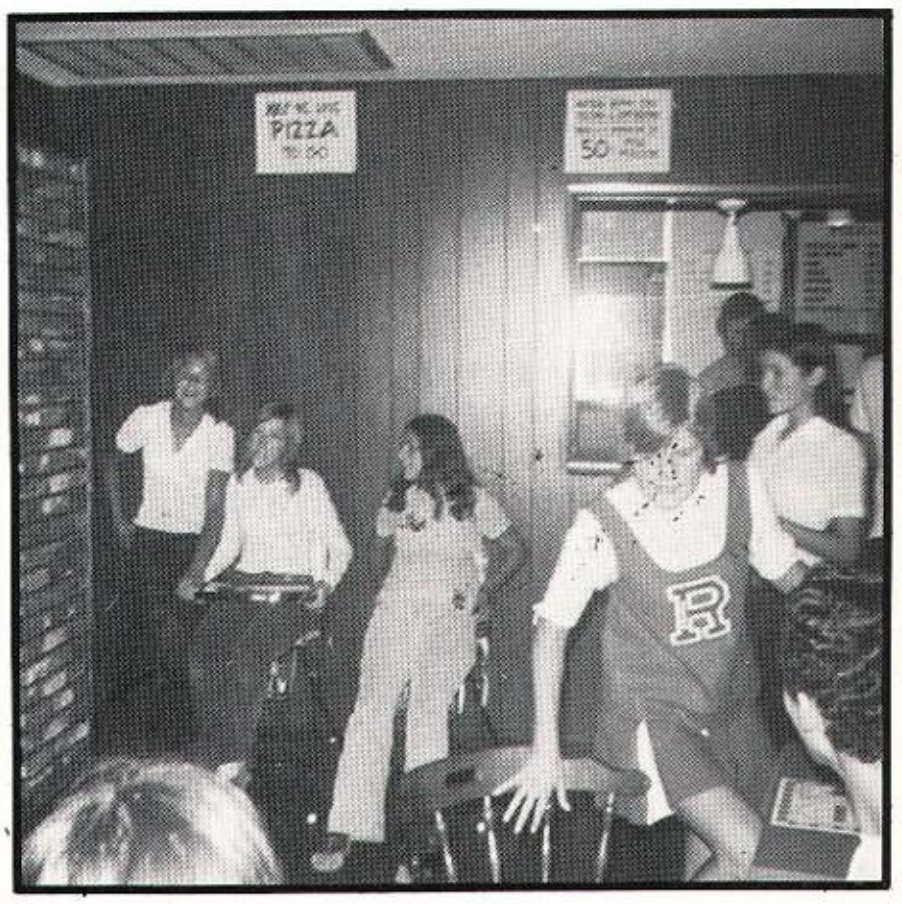
Creative people stay busy at Raney.

On & Off Campus,



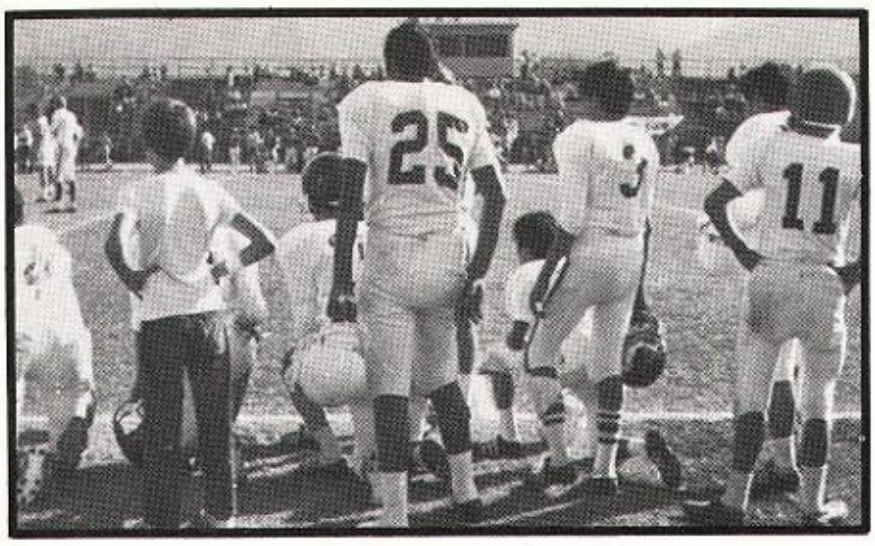


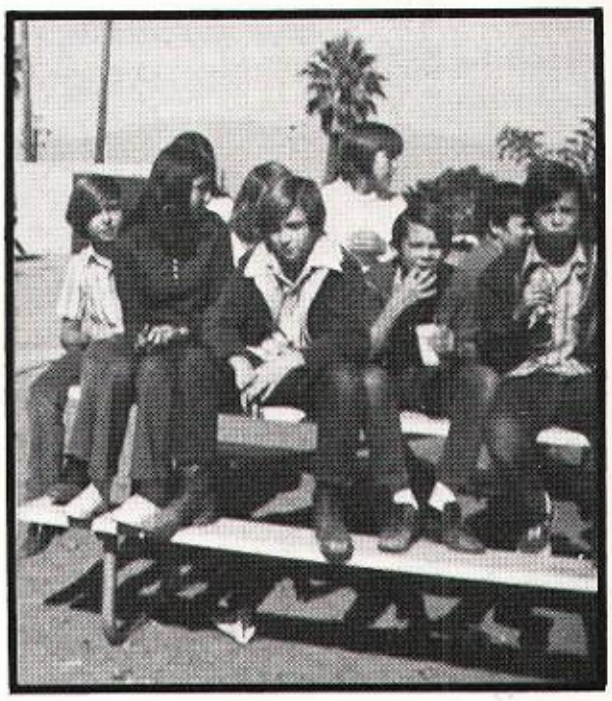
"We lost!" So let's celebrate!



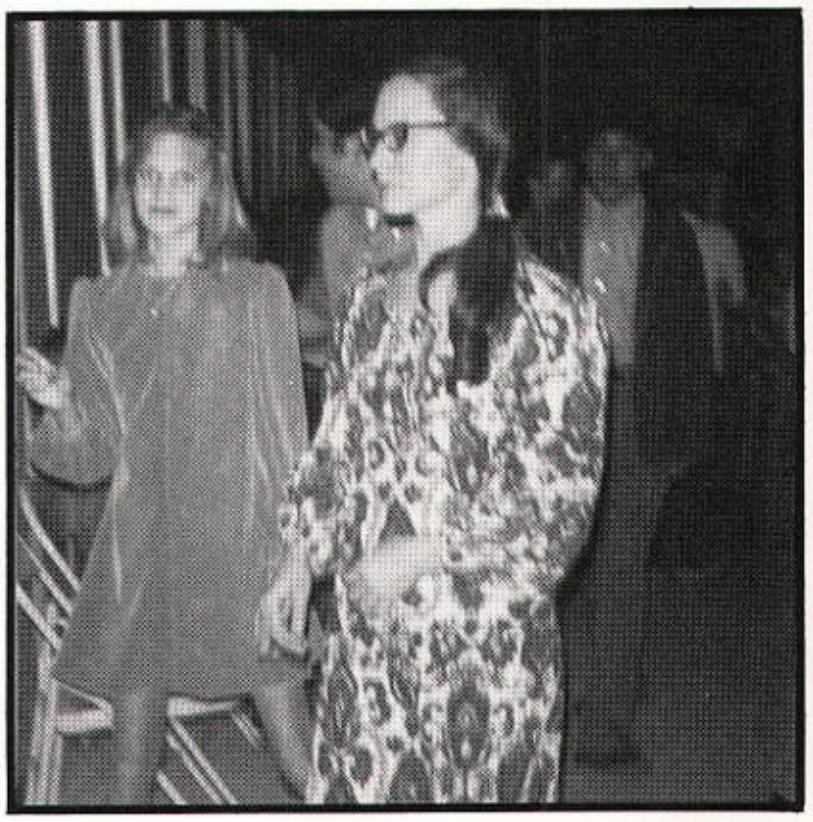
Mr. Troxel, Mr. Van Matre, and Mr. Best did everything to make the students love school. Many activities are provided the students.

The students even participate off campus if it has anything to do with football, pizza, and just plain ole fun. We love it at homebase, too. Anything that is exciting makes school the best place to be. All our wonderful P.E. instructors were fully supported by the faculty. Many of them never missed a student activity.





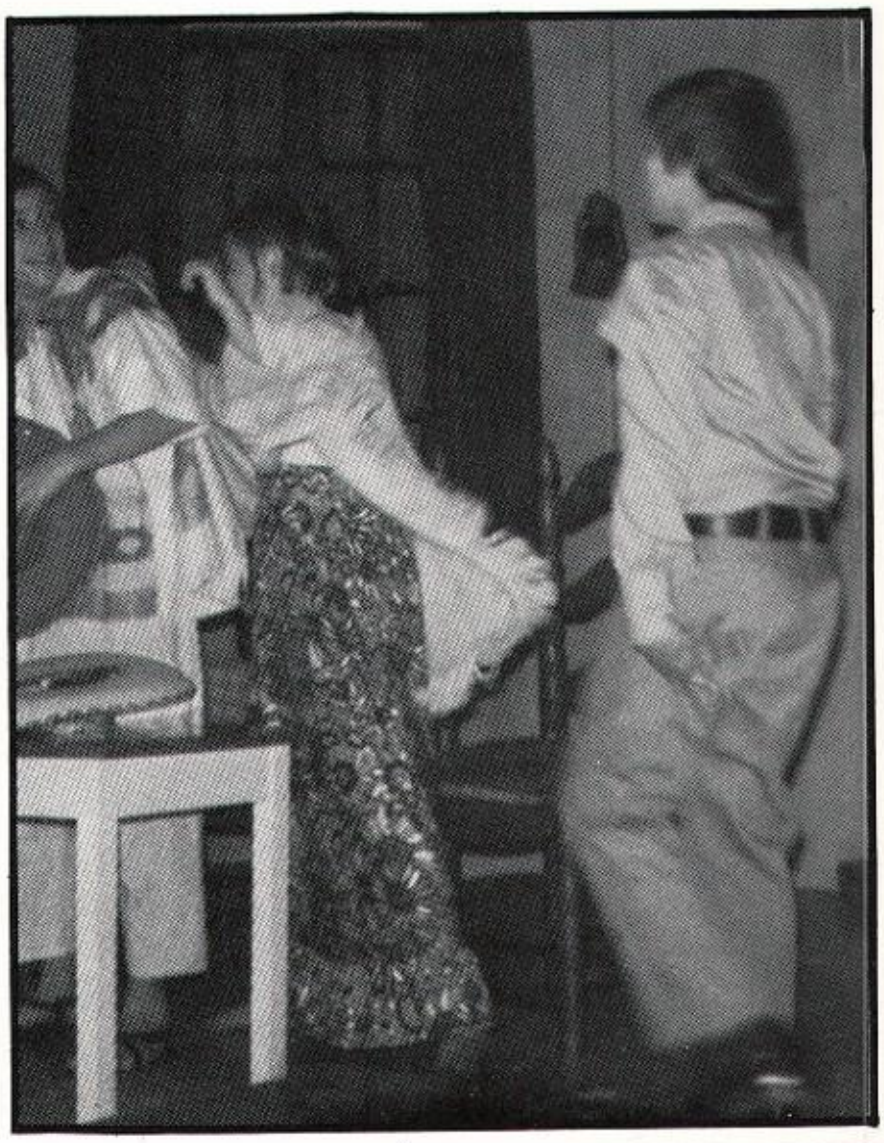
'The Gang'

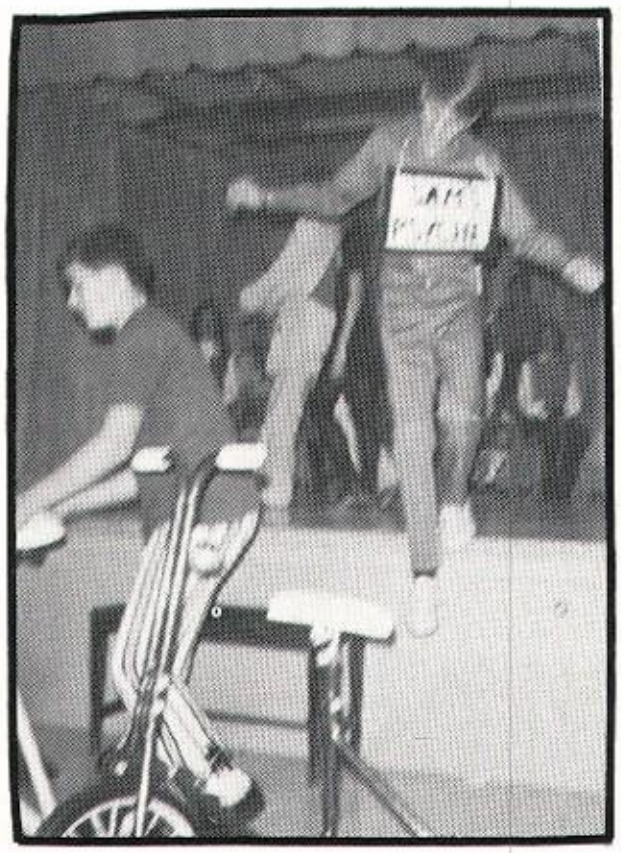


Dances are a fun part of life on campus.

PEOPLE THAT WORK

This year the serious and the comical combined to make an excellent Christmas program.





Plays are for students who can't stand routine, and like to escape from the usual scene. Classes and Drama put on the shows, But when we pile in, anything goes! So as you can see, plays bring great relief, but only add to the Custodians grief. Same old classes every day, but putting on a play changes that way. Plays are put on during the year, they change the monotonous moods to cheers!

TOGETHER "PLAY" TOGETHER

Mr. Godoy's sixth period class performed a Mexican ritual "Las Posadas"

Mr. Althoff's Drama Club put on a great play, "Sally and Sam."
